SENIORS

The long awaited day has finally arrived. We, the seniors, meet it with mixed emotions. We are happy to have attained a goal--graduation, but we reluctantly leave our many friends and teachers. We look to the future with great anticipation, but we shall always be a part of Bethany High School. We are grateful for all it has given us.

CLASS

It all happened one day when Carolyn came to visit me. We were sitting on the floor of my cave chewing the bone when it all came back. Slowly, mistily, but surely it all was there.

It was on the day when Jeanne Elder and Eddie Tucker, two great scientists, were distracted and let their bubbling experiment boil. Therewas a violent explosion! The earth shook, buildings crumpled beneath the impact, people fled in stark terror, but there was no safety. And now this! This desolation! This nothing!

To clear our senses we decided to take a walk.
We were surprised and happy to meet an old classmate Jon Walen. He is the heart-throb of the teen-agers, an ancient Elvis Presley. He is married to another chum of ours Violet Miller, but alas all does not go well, for Jon is madly in love with his co-star in "The Life and Loves of Marjorie Main," Janet Taylor. It is the ever eternal triangle, but this triangle has an extra corner. Butch Bennett, the notorious creator of a club that is guaranteed to make a hit every time, has his eye on Janet and he has her under constant surveilance by his henchman, Roy Book. Things may not go on like this much longer for the chief of the tribe, Ron Garrett, and his Public Prosecutor, Wayne Ward, are hot on the trail of the gangsters. We hope Jon realizes what a treasure Violet is before it is too late.

We next passed a new duplex cave that was recently sold to Sarah Kirkwood and her husband, Dale. Sarah surprised Dale with a new curved stick with which to work the soil. They are going to share the cave with Anita Wiley and her husband, Bill, who is going into farming with Dale.

Well, she's at it again! We used to wonder at Mary Kay's early bids to the Sweetheart Dance, but this beats all. She has asked Dean Puyear nine months before time to the Sour Liver Hop at Cave 15. Hope you have fun, Kay!
"Oh, Girls," thrilled the ex-editor of the Broadcaster, "Wait for me." Patiently we waited until Judy Lumsden had reached us. "Ihave the best news," she said, "I'm on my way to decorate Jackie's cave. I'm going to do a set of pictures showing little David from age three to seven." We "oh'd" and "ah'd" properly and proceeded on our way.

Crawling on her knees, pecking at corn, is our close friend, Phylis Barnes. It was pathetic. In high school days she always loved the atmosphere of corn fields and when the blast came it was too much for her. She thinks she is a hen.

Suddenly a harsh pounding sound was heard around the corner, and as we went to investigate who did we spy but T. L. Sheehan. He was chiseling his A' B' C's out of a huge slab of stone. We found he works for Sandra Barnes, the old bookworm, who now owns a bookstore. She is very poor for two reasons: (1) It takes too long to make a page in a chapter in a book and (2) no one can read.

Glancing upward we saw Shirley Heckler with a load of wash and groceries trudging up the steep grade. Upon inquiry we found that she was on her way to clean the house of the tribe's bachelor, Howard Brown. "How that man does mess things up!" she simpered as she waved good bye.

The building to come into view next was the repair shop of Ronald Crane's. He repairs wrecked dinosaurs. His best customer, Bruce Stroyeck, was there getting the blocks lowered and a new set of duals put on his favorite hopped up dinosaur, Farfel.
"Don't! Stop! A-h-h-h-h!" These bloodcurling screams split our ears as we rounded a corner to find Faye Pritts dragging Skip into her cave by his long beard. Just like old times!

As memory returned to us we remembered the last news broadcast we had heard. We had been informed that the waters of the world were slowly advancing and that over a period of about ten years they should cover the earth. When we heard the loud steady roar we both knew it was THE END.

CLASS HISTORY

Thirty-one of us, green and scared, marched through the stone gate and formed the gang in the fall of '53. Those charged with the organization are:
Wayne Ward . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . President
Diane Shonk . . . . . . . . . . . . Vice-President
Jeanne Elder . . . . . . . Secretary-Treasurer
Mary Kay Twenty . . . . . . . . . . . Reporter
Jackie Sims and Ron Garrett . . . . . Student Council

Mr. Bosomworth is chosen guardian and Mary Kay Twenty is permitted to serve as majorette this year.

The fall of '54 brings 30 real gone squares to Mrs. Campbell's room. In checking roll we discover, that Lois McGee, Gale Marshall, and Wayne Ward have jumped bond. To account for these three losses we have admitted Sarah Kirkwood, Pat Hill, and Charles Gard. Pat and Charles are with us only a short time though before being transferred. Upon further inspection we discover that Arletta McDaniels has been paroled by marriage. The gang leaders appointed are:
Eddie Tucker . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . President
Diane Shonk . . . . . . . . . . . . . Vice-President
Judy Lumsden . . . . . . . . . . . . . Secretary
Phylis Barnes . . . . . . . . . . . . . Treasurer
Jackie Sims . . . . . . . . . . . . . Reporter
Faye Pritts and Ron Garrett . . . . Student Council

Guard of the gang this year is Coach Jostes. Jackie Sims is beginning a three year term as cheerleader and Mary Kay Twenty is still serving as majorette.

The junior gang called for a meeting to elect new brains of the outfit. Those promoted were:
Diane Shonk . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . President
Eddie Tucker . . . . . . . . . . . . Vice-President
Phylis Barnes . . . . . . . . . . . . . . Secretary
Violet Miller . . . . . . . . . . . . . Treasurer
Judy Lumsden . . . . . . . . . . . . Reporter
Sandra Barnes, Faye Pritts, and Ronnie Garrett . . . Student Council

Gang mothers are Miss Brown and Miss Gisinger.
During this long and gruelsome term nine of our inmates flew the coup. They were: Ronnie Robbins, Larry Farris, Gene Marshall, Carroll Hall, Bradley Herendeen, Dave Cain, Mary Kay Twenty, Diana Herendeen, and Jeanette Armor. Two of our former pals, Wayne Ward and Mary Kay Twenty, flew back, bringing with them Roy Book and Bruce Stroyeck, who became new members of the gang.

BROTHER GOOSE appeared on the scene December 2, and was a real gone play.
For our departing inmates, the seniors, we threw a real keen prom at the Decatur Club on May 12.

Twenty-five cool cats started things rolling by proclaiming:
Ron Garrett . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . Top Man
Diane Shonk . . . . . . . . . . . . Right-Hand Man
Violet Miller . . . . . . . Time Keeper (Secretary)
Jeanne Elder . . . . . . Pay-Off Man (Treasurer)
Carolyn Pritts . . . . . . . . . Spy (Reporter)
Sandra Barnes, Ronnie Garrett, and Wayne Ward. . .
Law Men, (Student Council)
Miss Brown, Mr. Jarand . . . . . . . . . . . Guards

One of our cats, David Windell, was released on bail and another, Jon Walen, was picked up. During Christmas one real gone kitten, Anita Lillico, jumped parole and was married, however, she came back to finish her term.

THE FORM DIVINE, our senior play, was a real smooth job and came off without a hitch on April 5. On May 18 the junior bunch threw a real hep Prom for all us departing cool cats.

We really flew the coup when we marched up to the warden to receive our permanent paroles on May 24, 1957. The break was final when we took time off on good behavior to fly to the Ozarks.

SENIOR WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1957, this twenty-fourth day of May, do bequeath our last will and testament to these lowly underclassmen.

DIANE SHONK wills her short hair to her sister Linda, who has quite a mane.
JEANNE ELDER leaves her brother Bob to Ellen Dick, who I'm sure will take good care of him.

ANITA WILEY wills her wedding bells to Judy Clark.
FAYE PRITTS leaves Skip Wheeler to all the future senior girls.
JANET TAYLOR wills her tiny waistline to Dick Saddoris.
JUDY LUMSDEN bequeaths her editorship of the "Babbler" to anyone who wants it.
JACKIE SIMS leaves her cheerleading suit to Jim Dukeman to go with his booming voice and his Rah! Rahl Rah!

SARAH KIRKWOOD leaves her art ability to anyone who thinks he can fill her shoes.
T. L. SHEEHAN leaves his straight A's??? to David Windell who we hear could use them.

To Dale McKinney goes RONNIE GARRETT'S football suit. Stretch, Dalel
BRUCE STROYECK leaves the remains of his car to his brother, Lynn. Drive carefully, Lynn.

HOWARD BROWN wills his silent ways to Fred Marshall. Take heed, Fred. JOHN WALEN leaves his way with the girls to Gene Boros.
RONALD CRANE wills his taxi service at noon hour to his brother, Jack.
SHIRLEY HECKLER bequeaths her red hair to her sister, Mary. Temper! Temper!

EDDIE TUCKER leaves his parliamentary procedures to Stanley Tucker. (Believe me, the senior class is glad to get rid of them.)

WAYNE WARD bequeaths his mustache to Dean Sutton hoping this will help him grow up.

To Roger Jarand goes PHYLIS BARNES'S dimples. Cheer up, Roger.
SANDRA BARNES leaves her different ways of getting good grades in Chemistry to next year's class.

VIOLET MILLER leaves her witty ways to anyone willing to dare.
MARY KAY TWENTY leaves her even temper to Linda Dick, since hers isn't always so even.

BUTCH BENNETT wills his way to get along with people to Joyce Brown.
ROY BOOK wills his southern drawl to Janice Smith who needs a little slowing down.
MISS BROWN leaves her grouchiness to Miss Mattioli.
MR. JARAND wills his battered carpenter thumbs to Coach Jostes.
