F H A

The F.H.A. is an incorporated nonprofit youth organization. Any pupil enrolled in high school who is taking or has taken a homemaking course may become a member. Membership is voluntary. Those who join in F.H.A. participate in national as well as community services. Future Homemakers develop creative leadership by making it possible for every member to participate in planning and doing.

The F.F.A. is a national organization for those enrolled in high school agriculture. Agricultural businesses and industries throughout the nation praise and give recognition to the work of the F.F.A. It promotes leadership and service, characteristics that are always in demand. In addition to recreation members participate in judging contests, parliamentary contests, public speaking, and tours. Many awards are available through the F.F.A. for those members willing to give service and to improve themselves.

NATIONAL THESPIAN SOCIETY

The National Thespians Society is relatively new at our high school. Its major purpose is to provide a means of allowing students who desire to act to do so. Only a few members are added each year. They are chosen by other members by their acting ability, dependability, desire to act and co-operation with other students.

November Mock Election

The Student Council, organized in 1947, has as its goals: to promote better understanding between faculty and students, to encourage scholarship, to foster loyalty to the school, and to help students become better citizens.

The student elected council, governed by its own constitution, develops rules for the regulation of school activities, approves events to be placed on the school calendar, and keeps an accumulative record of extracurricular activities throughout the year. The Council at all times works with the Board of Education, the school administrators, and its advisor. The Bethany Student Council is a member of the Shelbyville District of Student Councils and the Illinois Association of Student Councils.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society is an organization of Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors who have a high grade average. Sophomores may be chosen as probationary members, may have voice and vote, but may not hold office. Each individual member must demonstrate continued scholastic achievement as a prerequisite to maintaining membership in the organization.

The specific objectives of the National Honor Society are: to create interest and enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote worthy leadership, and to further develop character.

THE REVERIE

The REVERIE, the yearbook of the Bethany High School, is an annual production and is financed by student sales, advertising, and a per page fee charged school organizations. This is the first year that the Junior High School has participated in contributing pages to the Annual. In order that the yearbook may show a complete picture of the activities during a school year, it is completed at the end of the school year, and delivered to the school the following September. Our thanks are extended to all students, faculty, and business firms that have made the production of this REVERIE possible.

Senior Class History

The Class of 1969 began with 59 enrolled in Grade One. By August, 1965, this number had dwindled to 37 green and scared Freshmen who walked through the doors of Bethany High School. Lois Ledbetter and Norma Sizemore transferred to another school during the year. Class officers were: Pres.—Dave Snyder; V.-Pres.—Patti Lesley; Sec.—Dee Wilson; Treas.—Becky Farris; Reporter—Ellen Fitzgerald; S. Council—Ed Book, John Wise, Patti Lesley, Sheila Mathias; Sponsor—Mr. Guthrie. As freshmen we participated in many activities. Our Homecoming Queen and King candidates were Norma Sizemore and Dave Snyder. We received fourth place each on our float "WE'RE HANKERIN' FOR A VICTORY" and our decorated window "WISHING YOU WELL".

33 confident students enrolled as Sophomores. During the year we acquired Dian Fultz, who moved away, and Alan Loy. Sophomore officers were: Pres.—Gene Brewer; V.-Pres.—Stan Tipsword; Sec.—Becky Farris; Treas.—Patti Lesley; Reporter—Teresa Thompson; S. Council—John Wise, Gene Brewer, Patti Lesley, Sheila Mathias; Sponsor—Mr. Balzer. King and Queen candidates were Sheila Mathias and Roger Crowder. Our float "WE'LL SINK EM" received fourth place as did our window "KING AND QUEEN OF HEARTS".

As Juniors we began the year with 35 members. Officers were: Pres.—Gene Brewer; V.-Pres.—Patti Lesley; Sec.—Sheila Mathias; Treas.—Teresa Thompson; Reporter—Dee Wilson; S. Council—Gene Brewer, Roger Crowder, Sheila Mathias, and Margaret McIlwain; Sponsors: Miss Taylor and Mr. Braden. Our King and Queen candidates were Stan Tipsword and Patti Lesley. Our window "HAPPINESS IS—STAN AND PATTI" received third place. On May 11, 1968, we gave a banquet and prom—theme “Roman Holiday”—for the graduating Seniors of 1968.

We began our Senior year with 35 members. During the year Ron White withdrew, was married, and joined the Navy. Later we lost Betty Cochran who also withdrew and got married. Officers elected were: Pres.—John Wise; V.-Pres.—Roger Crowder; Sec.—Sheila Mathias; Treas.—Patti Lesley; Reporter—Paula Cole; S. Council—Gene Brewer, Pres., of S. Council; Roger Crowder, Sheila Mathias, Margaret McIlwain; Sponsors—Mr. Overlot and Mr. Spence. Our King and Queen candidates were John Wise and Margaret McIlwain. Our float “SPOUT TIME FOR VICTORY” received first place. Our window “A WISE OWL VOTES—MARG AND JOHN” received third place. “Beauty and the Beef”, our Senior play was presented in November 1968. The Juniors were our hosts on May 17 to a banquet and prom—theme: “Daizy Daze”. Baccalaureate was held on Sunday night May 26, 1969, followed by Commencement on Thursday, May 29. The Seniors enjoyed a five day trip after Commencement to New York City.

Class Prophecy

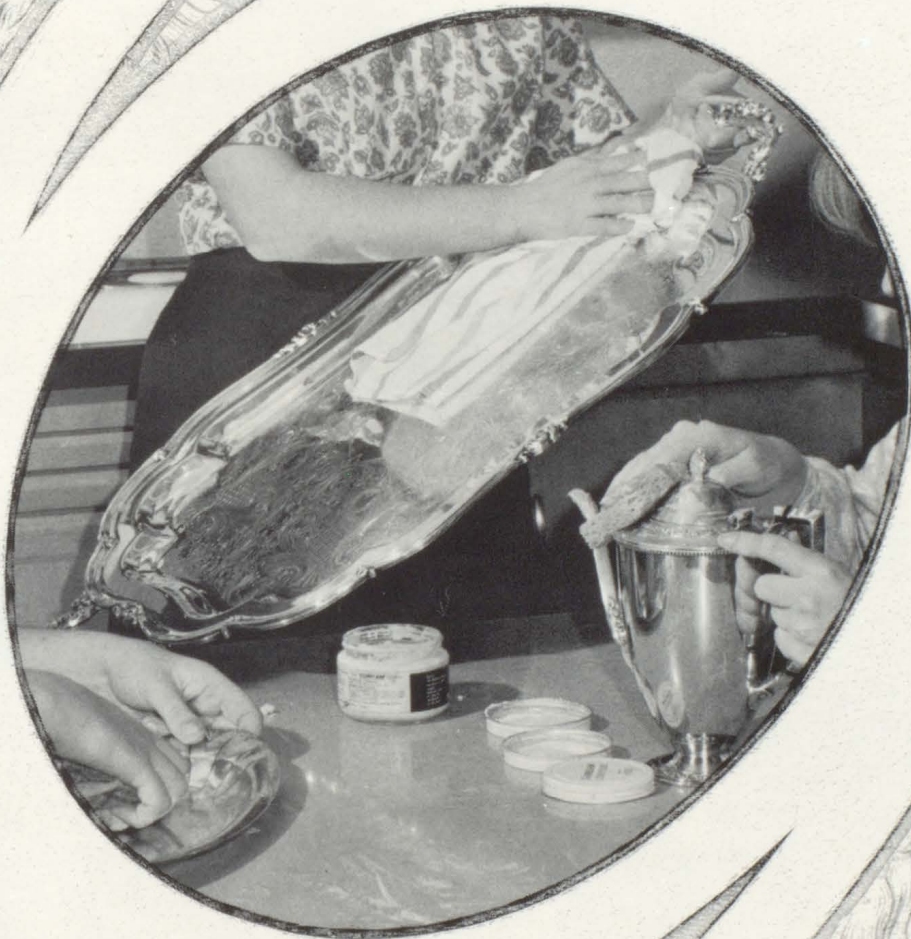

It's the bottom of the ninth, the score is tied 0-0 and the world famous pitcher Fireball Tipword steps on the mount. The crowd roars and in the background one voice is heard above the others. It is Teresa Thompson with her brood yelling, “Shut up, you kiddies’”. As we look over the crowd trying to pick out familiar faces, we see Margaret McIlwain selling concessions. “Peanuts, P-nuts”, she yells. This brings back old memories; she always was kind of squirrely back in ole BHS. Now, the pitcher is winding up—wait a minute—someone is falling out of the stands. Could it be?—Is it?—Yes—it's Steve Gist. Nurses Patti Lesley and Rayne Holthaus are on the spot immediately. They're always on hand at ball games ever since they were caught smoking in the operating room. The pitch is delivered. “Strike” yells the umpire, Lincoln Noblitt. The batter, Mike Smith, whirls around and shouts “Noblitt, you're blind”. At this the manager Mike “Sally” Collins comes walking slowly from the dug-out. As this minor detail is being worked out, we scan the crowd again. Why, there's Ellen Fitzgerald, and chained to her ever faithful companion, “Foot” King. Across the aisle is Dave Snyder. I hear he's a famous actor now. Guess he got the inspiration after being rejected in the class play. Meanwhile, back at the game, a policeman retrieves a foul ball. It's George Fleshner up to his old man's tracks. Up in the broadcaster's booth is that famous team, Schwartz and Wilson. They got their start by blowing up balloons and sucking all the hot air out again. Back at the ball game, Lightning Fast Roger Crowder is on first base. Why it looks like he's getting ready to steal—and next to him is Sheila Mathias telling him not to. Playing in the outfield is Tom Russell, Alan Loy, Don Gibbons and Jim Thomas. As usual they are lying down on the job. Oh! Wait a minute; there's a timeout on the field. Someone needs a drink. There goes water-girl Sharon Muzzy to give one to Bob Florey. Guess he never has gotten enough. Up to bat now is Gene Brewer. He swings and the ball goes sizzling in the stands directly behind him. His intentions were good, but as usual, they didn't come out right. Catching the foul tip was Linda Payne. For once, she was in the right place at the right time. Fireball is winding up for another tremendous pitch when singing is heard from the dugout. The pinch hitter, Myla Hooper, yells “Wise, shut up. Your bull is tone deaf”. Cheerleaders Candy Monroe and Becky Farris start up one of their famous cheers “99 fouls and you're out”, but are soon hushed by third base coach, Janice Thompson. It wasn't bothering batter Paula Spence, but it was disturbing bat girl Paula Cole's slumbers. Last night must have been a doozy! Now there's a slight pause in the game as they wait for the next batter, Nancy Martin, to step up. She never was on time. A high pop-up makes it almost impossible for the man on third, Dan Miller, to make it home for the decisive run, but he tries it anyway. A quick sprint and a long slide and a cloud of dust. As it clears, the umpire makes his call. He'd-----out! The game is lost. What a game! What a game!

Last Will and Testament - Class of '69

We, the class of '69, declare this to be our last will and testament: Ed Book leaves his taxi service for Mr. Syfert to Paul Fleshner. Gene Brewer leaves Dennis Pyles his hall roaming ability. Paula Cole wills her car to anyone who can have as much fun with it as she has. Mike Collins leaves his red truck in the school parking lot finally. Roger Crowder will his 6'3" frame to "Chicken Man" Donald Snyder. Becky Farris leaves her wiggly walk to Marcheta Carder. Ellen Fitzgerald leaves her boy friend's enormous class ring to Danny Flannell to grow into. George Fleshner finally leaves. Bob Florey leaves his truancy to his brother. Donald Gibbons leaves gas siphoning to "Lips" Moon. Steve Gist leaves his spastic ways to Alan Webner. Rayne Holthaus leaves her Excedrin to Excedrin headache +70, Kay Sanner. Myla Jo Hooper leaves her Army waiting days to Dorothy Kirkwood. Patti Lesley wills her figure to Becky Sapp. Alan Loy leaves his unsuccessful ways with the girls to Brad Cribbet. Sheila Mathias leaves her love for biting dogs to Hazel LaCost, cat lover. Candy Monroe leaves her love for crackers to Rita Payne. Margaret McIlwain leaves her ability to get caught on country roads to Jessica Sereda. Danny Miller leaves his prize hog litter to B.H.S. Sharon Muzzy leaves her fifth hours in Mr. Jarand's office to anyone wanting to get lunch first. Lincoln Noblitt leaves his "apeing" ability to John McCain—watch monkeying around, John. Linda Payne leaves her quiet ways to Pat Ray. Nancy Martin leaves her "bologna" to Karen Funk and Diane Sanders. Tom Russell leaves his few trips to the barber to Steve Dukeman. Debbie Schwartz leaves her love affairs to Sandra LaCost. Dave Snyder leaves his trips uptown to anyone who can keep up with him. Paula Spence leaves her ways with the superintendent to Jerry Utsler. Jim Thomas leaves his moose ways to Bill McIlwain, already a squirrel. Janice Thompson leaves her love for semi-trucks to Pansy Ekiss. Teresa Thompson leaves her noon hours with John to sister Mary, who is doing well herself. Stan Tipsword leaves his scientific mind to anyone who can get as much out of Mr. Jarand's experiemnts as he did. Dee Wilson leaves her music ability to Pegg Bland. John Wise leaves his carrot crop to "Rabbit" White.
