Bus Drivers: Left to Right: Oscar Mathias, Larry Candage, Lula Shipman, Bonnie Hill, and Doris Bruns.

Biology

Above: I did not see anything behind you Mr. Balber.

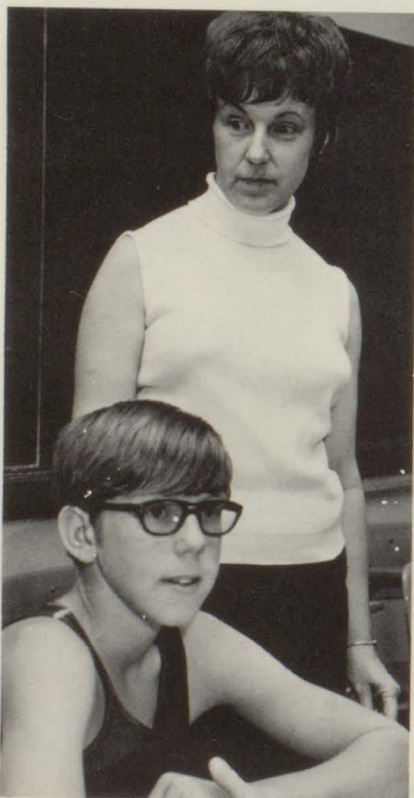

Above: Mr. Balber told another funny.

Biology is offered in two courses under the titles of General Biology and Advanced Biology. Gen. Biology is required for freshmen. There you learn a little bit about everything. In Advanced Biology you go in a little bit deeper.

Right: How big was that??????????

Business

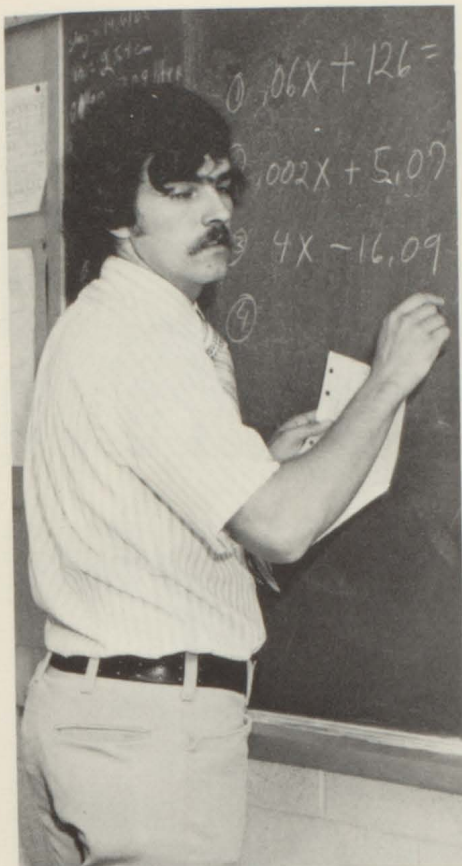

Mrs. Shimp instructs her class the right way.

In typing EVERYONE concentrates.

Business classes are taught by Mrs. Shimp. In these classes the students learn how to manage their money, keep a budget, and how to become a good secretary. She also teaches typing, shorthand, consumers ed., and bookkeeping. If you take one of these courses you must really study.

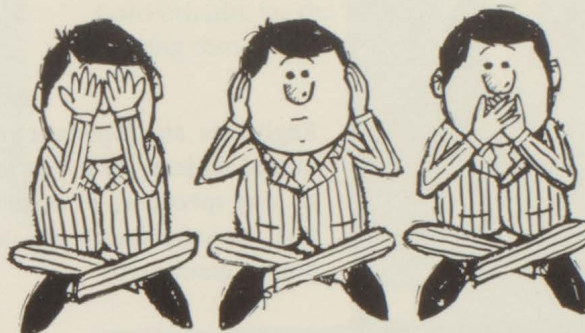

Mr. Lustig takes a quick look up from work.

Physics

Physics is taught by Mr. Lustig. Physics involves motion, relativity, atomic models, polarization, matter, waves, etc.

Left: You call this a Physics class?

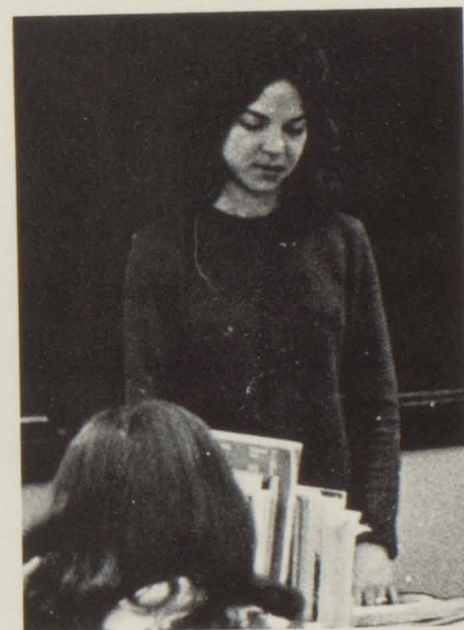

German

English

Mr. Syfert teaches Sophomores, Juniors, Seniors, and eighth graders. Mrs. Beck teaches Freshmen, seventh graders. Mrs. Rincker teaches Vocational English.

Mr. Syfert takes time out for a little pleasure.

An attentive Jr. High class.

English is an important and required subject. In it you learn to give speeches, to write letters, to write creatively, and proper grammar.

Mr. Syfert's Easter wish!

Mrs. Rincker takes time out for a quick picture.

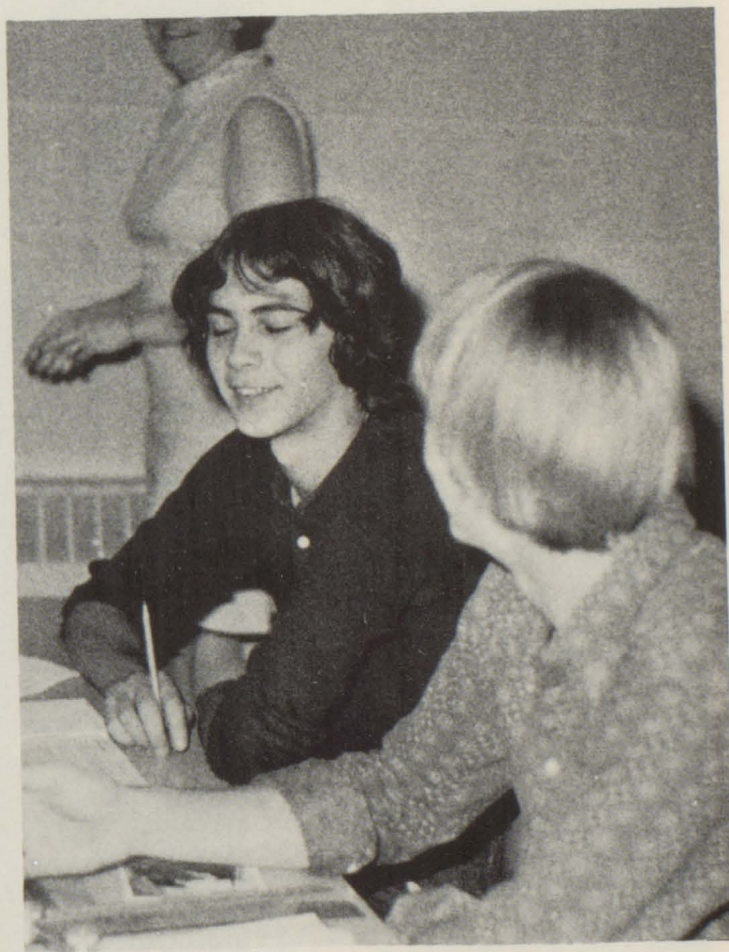

Mrs. Beck tells her class, "We're Number One!!!"

Guidance and Speech

Left: Mrs. Elder Mrs. Elder's responsibilities consist of arranging class schedules, listening to our problems, getting us ready for college, testing, and being the Yearbook Sponsor.

Bottom Left: Mrs. Coppage Mrs. Coppage is the Speech Correctionist for the Bethany School System. She also gives hearing tests.

"Mrs. Elder, Bill has this problem!"

Library

Top Left: Mr. Brooks, Head Librarian.

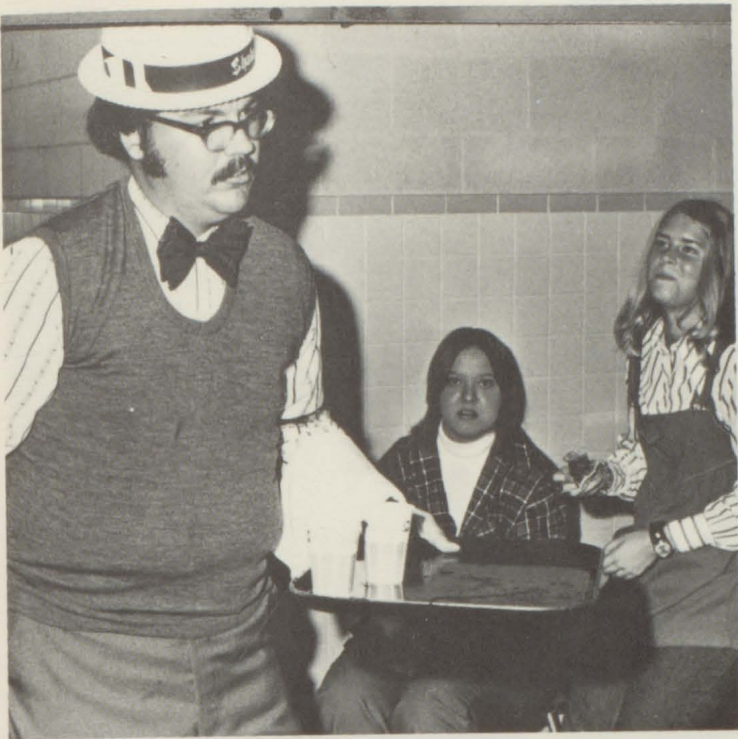

Top Right; Mrs. Austin, Assistant Librarian

Bottom: The library has various other functions such as class meetings and testing.

Music

Music involves band and chorus. It is taught by Mr. Palmer. This year we have done such things as Marching Band Contest, Musical, Band and Chorus Contests, and Jazz Band Contest, which were all exciting.

Hey, waiter, over here!!!!

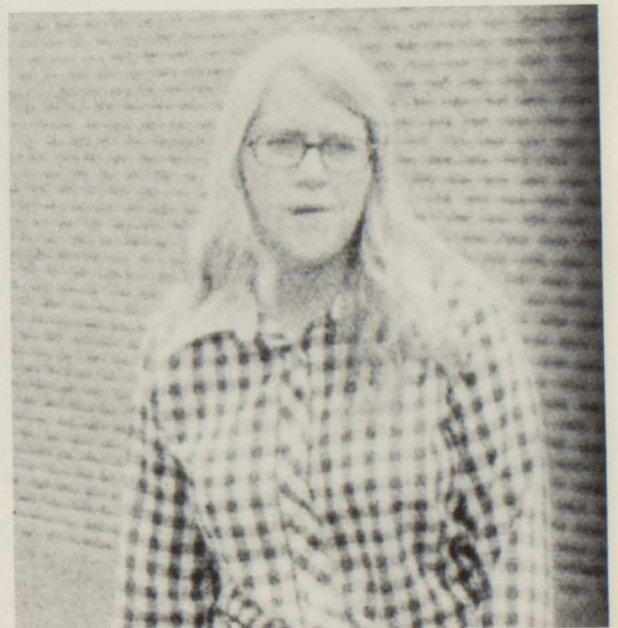

This is Chris' usual pass-time when he's not busy.

History

History is a required subject and is taught by Mrs. Price. It covers many different subjects, including term papers, art projects, and a few reports. Mrs. Price also teaches Jr. High Social Studies. Below: Where's my class????

Mrs. Price listens to an amusing story, probably told by Don Dowdell.

The first game of the season was played at Maroa. It was a hard-fought game in which Mike Overlot threw two touchdown passes to Greg Allsop. Bethany gained 350 yards in this game. This is a great improvement over last year.

The Atwood Rajahs spoiled the Mustangs home opener 48 to 13. Mike Overlot and Jim Bone combined with the first touchdown. Overlot kicked the extra point. Mike Overlot later ran for 31 yards for Bethany's second touchdown. Monte Calhoun and Kim Abbott rushed for 71 and 21 yards respectfully. Jerry Cohan and Ben Boyer led in tackles.

The pre-season favorites, Assumption Comets, journeyed into Mustang Country for Bethany's Homecoming. The Mustangs took command and scored on a Mike Overlot to Greg Allsop pass late in the first half. Several major penalties stopped other drives by the Mustangs. Brett Marshall intercepted a key pass late in the first half. In the fourth quarter, the Comets finally got things rolling with five minutes to go and scored from four yards out. The extra point was no good and the game ended in a six to six tie. Monte Calhoun led rushing with 38 yard. Chuck Miller led tackles with nine.

Moweaqua romped Bethany 45-6. The only score was a pass from Jim Bone to Greg Allsop, for 85 yards late in the fourth quarter. Monte Calhoun led rushing with 65 yards in 10 carries. Ben Boyer led tackles with 14.

Bethany beat Lovington 36-20. Kim Abbott rushed for 116 yards and two touchdowns. Greg Allsop caught 2 touchdowns--one each from Mike Overlot and Jim Bone. Monte Calhoun rushed for 60 yards and Jerry Cohan and Rob Bates led in tackles with 6 apiece.

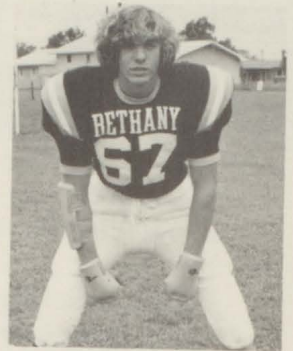

Niantic jolted Bethany 31-6. The only score was a pass from Jim Bone to Brent Standerfer from the 4 yard line late in the fourth quarter. Monte Calhoun and Kim Abbott were leading rushers. Jerry Cohan and Ben Boyer led in tackles.

Bethany trounced Illiopolis 27-8. Monte Calhoun was leading rusher with 109 yards and scored the first touchdown. Mike Overlot combined with Greg Allsop on two touchdown passes--93 and 55 yards. Jim Bone connected with Chuck Miller on an 11 yard pass for the fourth touchdown. Overlot kicked 3 extra points. Kim Abbott had two interceptions and Calhoun had one. Ben Boyer led in tackles with 10.

Bethany lost the last game of the season to Macon 44-13. The Mustangs could muster only 36 yards on the ground. Mike Overlot completed 4 passes for 114 yards and Jim Bone completed one pass for 71 yards.

Class Will

Maria Apke leaves her quiet ways to Barb Kohler who needs them.
Chris Bagley wills his quiet car to Linda Kirkwood who needs to quiet hers down some.
Rob Bates wills his nose to Elaine T.
Dan Bone wills his wrestling matches in the halls with Barb to Kim and Donna who have already started their own.
Ben Boyer wills his ways with the Junior High Girls to the Junior High Boys who need to learn them.
Colleen Brewer wills her "bug offs" to the pest control company who needs to come to Bethany High School.
Debbie Brewer wills her hair to Sheila White so she can add a blonde wig to her collection.
Gay Cruit wills her "best all around" in the personality polls to Winona Carder.
Monte Calhoun wills his trips to Decatur with Harold to anyone that can stand them.
Jerry Cohan wills his sideburns to Jimmy Peterson who may never get them.
Diane Farris wills her friend in the Superintendent's Office to Betty Jo Carlyle who has one in the cafeteria.
Jane Fitzgerald wills her trips to the candy factory to Cheryl Grove who has hopes to have a reason to go herself.
Cheryl Foster wills her job at the grade school to anyone who can stand the little brats.
Mike Holland wills his army coat to anyone who can wear it through all the different kinds of weather as he did.
Barb Grove leaves her keys to the bandroom to Susan Iler or Deanna Walker who will be fighting for them.
Ron Jenkins wills his metal working capabilities to the sophomore boys.
Brett Marshall wills his hard to get along with in English class to the Sophomores.
Bill McCorvie wills his good physique to Greg Allsop who already thinks he has it.
Pam McManaway wills her good times with the girls to Deanna Walker.
Harold Nailer leaves his toothless smile, quick ways, and driving ability to anyone who can keep up with all three.
Kathy Orris wills her Florida tan to Sheila Standerfer who has hopes to get more than just freckles.
Tim Pasley wills his hair and sideburns to Jerry Butler who has hopes of getting them some day.
Steve Parsons wills his married life to Alma Book who will soon have her own.
Marla Peterson wills her outspoken ways to Robbie Gist who has too many already.
Joey Robbins wills his parking space up-town to anyone who get as much enjoyment as he did.
Brent Standerfer wills his Ability to Win Friends and Influence People to Pat Tueth.
John Siere leaves Kathy.
Brenda Throneburg leaves her trips to Moweaqua to Vicki Thompson.
Nancy Sowers leaves her diamond ring to Lynn Davis, because this one will have to last forever.
Rick Underwood wills his laziness to Barb Sharp who never seems to run out of energy.
Stan Sanmer wills his saxophone to anyone that can stay in band 8 years.
Debby Sullivan leaves her long beautiful fingernails to Linda Webner who does not know how to shape them yet.
Denise Spencer wills her unexcused absences to Susan Smith who needs to get away.
Cathy Wakeland wills her fun filled noon hours to Marti Sumpter who will be lost without her.
Merel Eccles wills his dancing ability to Mike Balber who already knows several moves.
Jan Weakly leaves her old "tweeter" to Mary Kay Scott, who is already a diligent musician.
Tim Wheeler leaves his diploma to his little sister Sandy who decided not to wait.
