Prophecy

1995

The year is 1995. The class of "75" has made considerable ups and downs in its goal to perfection.

One thing the class wanted to make sure of was that there were plenty of kids in the world. Linda Webner Casteel has 5 kids that have won the Louisiana Tractor Pulling Contest.

Linda meets up with Linda Kirkwood who travels around the world showing dogs, for she now owns her own kennel.

While back in the old home county Kathy Sullivan and her husband are now managers of the Sullivan Masonic Home.

Robbie Gist claims to be married, but to whom no one is really certain.

Betty Jo Carlyle, who is now driving a 8630 John Deere tractor and listening to Linda Throneburg sing her latest album entitled "Back to Country."

Mike Goetz who is now a city cop, just recently picked up Barb Snyder for illegally assuming the identity of a mail lady, to force herself into Don Dowdell's home, who went AWOL from Sullivan's National Guard Unit. Barb has now been placed into custody of Dan Bryant, who is the probation officer.

Angie Rauch, who is now a nun, visits Barb often trying to convert her to the Christian way of life.

Back to the lighter side of things. Alma Black (Mayor of Moweaqua) has appointed Stan Stables the first life-time boy scout.

Mike Bennett, who is an accomplished architect, is now constructing a lake. Susan Smith is following up with the Biological aspect of the fish culture in this lake.

Jeff Holthaus, who now farms 3,000 acres, recently hired Jim Bone to mow his yard with a John Deere mower. This is only a weekend job, because Jim sweeps the floors at F. H. Blands while studying law at Lakeland.

Joyce Brewer has made her "great escape" to the Playboy Ranch owned and operated by Larry Puyear.

Betty Nichols and her husband now own and operate Bethany's trailer court where they started their lives 20 years ago.

Becky Butler has raised two fine boys and they are both mechanics with their father.

Barb Sharp is now teaching.

Chris Eckel, who is touring the country with the Beetles, was recently joined by Greg Allsop, who is searching for the "great escapee."

Vicki Thompson has been hired by Dave Warren, President of the "Warren Producers National Bank" as a computer programmer to calculate the number of hogs to be farrowed to make 2 million dollars a year.

Ron Thomas, a professional custodian, cleans up Dan Suddarth's pharmacy every night.

Chuck Miller, who now owns his own auto-body shop, has been working on the city truck, which Gary Iler recently wrecked, as he has taken over for retiring Ward Thomas.

Class Will

GREG ALLSOP leaves his ways on the football field to Garry Wicker who can't seem to stay in the game.

BETTY BEACHY NICHOLS leaves her engagement ring to Nancy Richardson who is going to have to have one!

MIKE BENNETT leaves his superior track skills to Randy Davis.

ALMA BLACK leaves her brains to the Freshman class who needs them.

JIM BONE leaves his great basketball skills to Gary Ashley, who could use some.

JOYCE BREWER leaves her typing speed to Deana Walker who needs to slow down some.

DAN BRYANT leaves his secret ways to anyone who can figure them out.

BECKY BUTLER leaves her homecoming spectacular of twirling fire to anyone who isn't chicken to try it.

BETTY JO CARLYLE leaves her fun times in Band and Chorus to Leesa Freeland in hopes that she will keep up the laughter.

DON DOWDELL leaves his study habits to Randy Walden, if he can find them.

CHRIS ECKEL leaves his tuba to Pat Tueth, who already can blow his own horn.

ROBBIE GIST leaves her ability to do what comes natural to the Freshman girls, even though quite a few know their own tricks.

MIKE GOETZ gladly leaves the halls of B.H.S.

JEFF HOLTHAUS leaves his ways with Mr. Syfert to the Sophomore boys.

GARY ILER leaves his good times with Cheryl to Nancy Richardson and Brian Wakeland, who already have a good start.

LINDA KIRKWOOD leaves her fun times at B.H.S. to her little brother in hopes he will keep up the good image.

CHUCK MILLER gladly leaves the halls of B.H.S.

LARRY PUYEAR leaves his collection of Playboy and Playboy stickers to Tony Rauch and Scott Davis who already have a small collection.

ANGIE RAUCH leaves her temper in P.E. to Pam Richardson who never seems to get caught with hers.

BARB SHARP leaves the B.H.S. cheerleaders sadly, with hopes that they'll pick up a few tricks to cheer on another great team.

SUE SMITH leaves her study habits to the Jr. boys, who need them.

BARB SNYDER leaves her drumming ability in Band to Alicia Lambird, who can't even show up for Band.

STAN STABLES leaves his parking space to anyone who wants it for he won't need it anymore.

DAN SUDDARTH gladly leaves.

KATHY SULLIVAN leaves her quiet ways to Deanna, who could use some.

RON THOMAS leaves his janitorial services to anyone who can stand them.

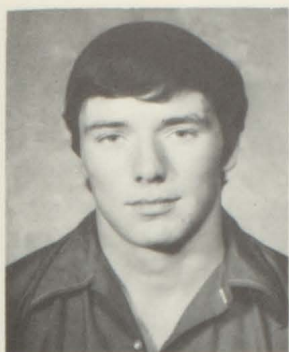

VICKI THOMPSON leaves her saying "Time will tell" to anyone who is brave enough to take it without knowing what it means.

LINDA THRONEBURG leaves her quiet ways to Patti Friesner in hopes she will learn to use them.

LINDA WEBNER leaves her image of Cher to Angie Jennings, who already has the nose for it.
