REVERIE

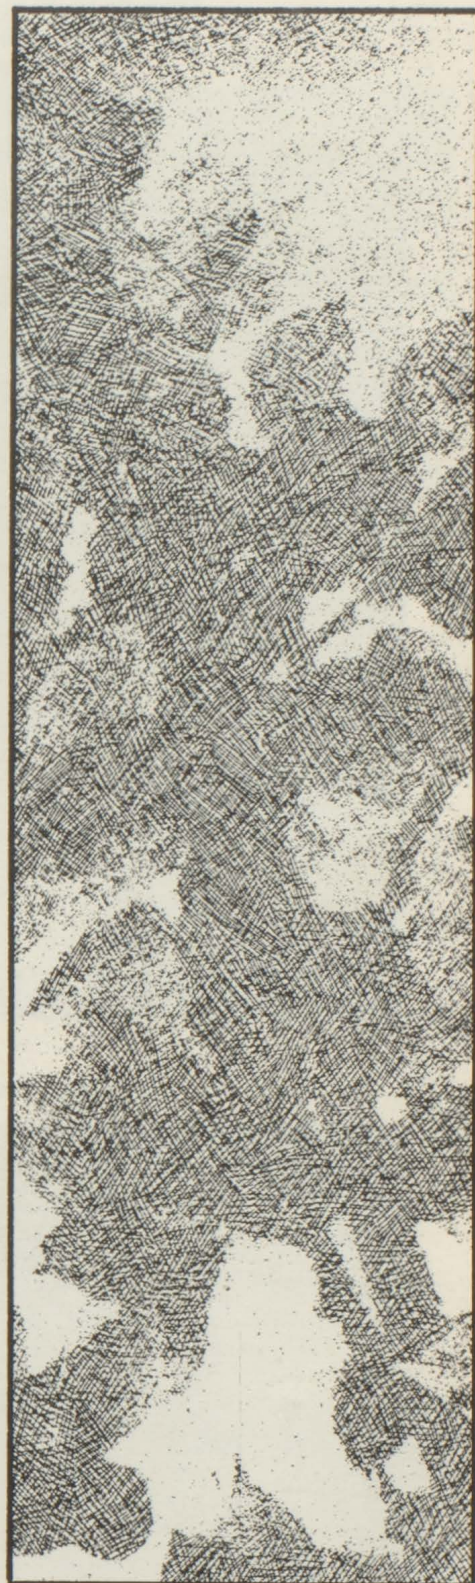

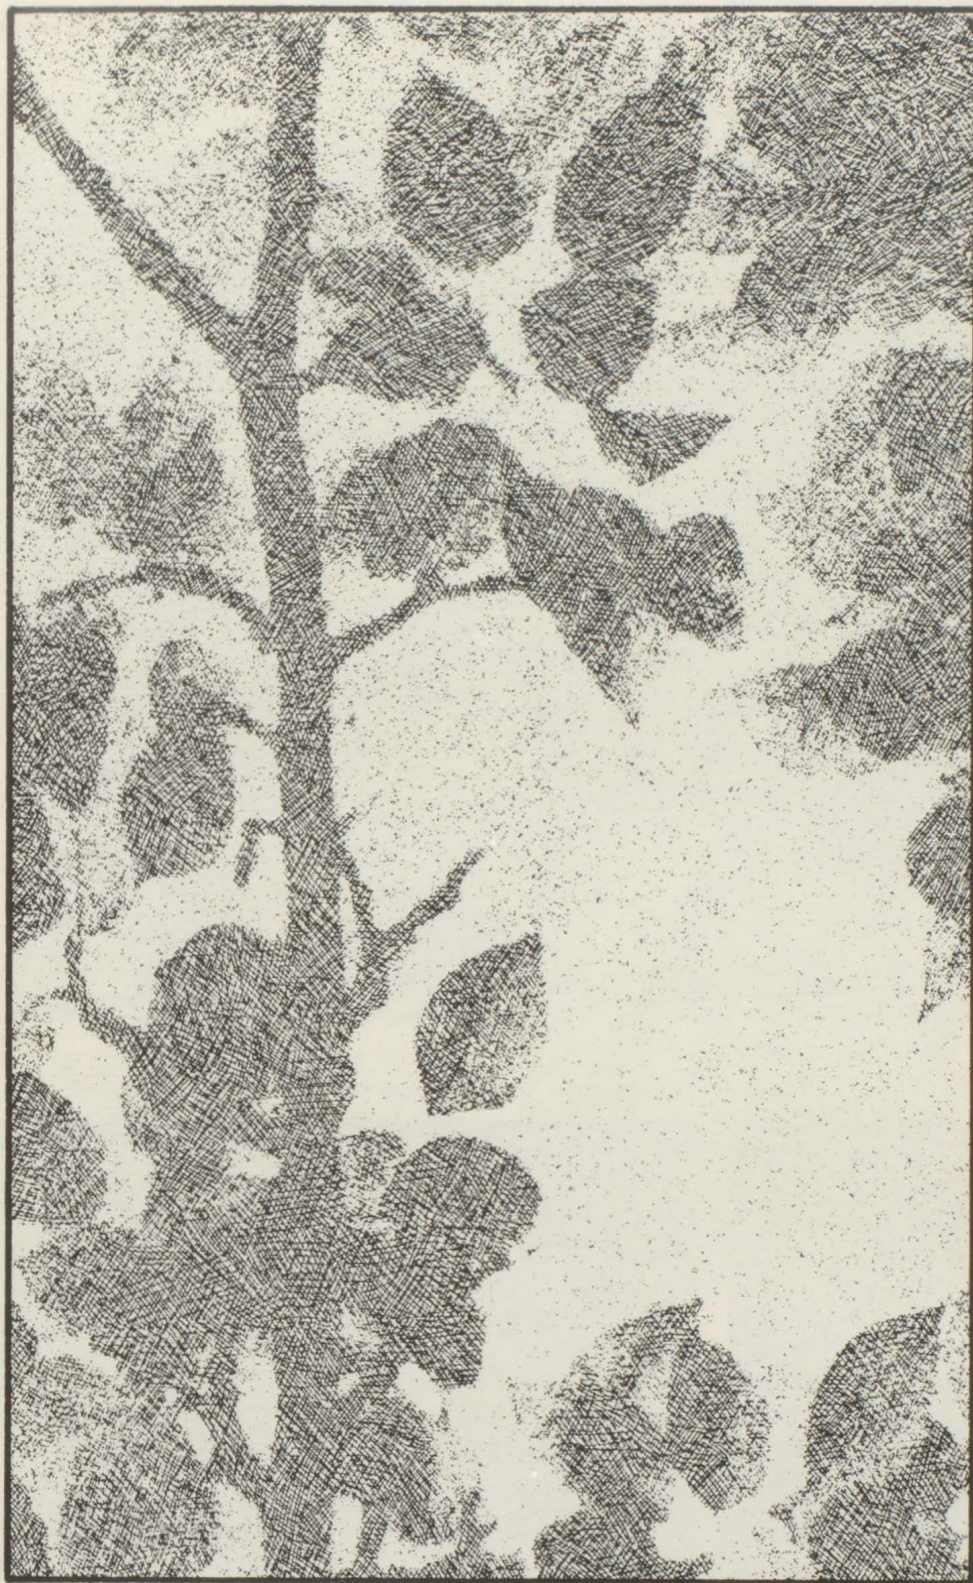

Our life is not a mere fact; it is a movement, a tendency, a steady, ceaseless progress toward an unseen goal. To desire and strive to be of some service to the world, to aim at doing something which shall really increase the happiness and welfare and virtue of mankind this is a choice which is possible for all of us; and surely it is a good haven to grow for.

CHUG! CHUG! CHUG!

Coach Inman

Standing in the empty gym on Monday, we wondered if we could get it decorated in time for Prom on Saturday.

Wire & streamers went up first, followed by lights, tables, and stars.

On Thursday, King & Queen candidates were chosen. Sue Davis, Joann Candage, Lori Friesner, and Angie Davis were chosen as queen candidates. Tom Sheehan, Bart Spencer, Todd Harris & Jon Bushert were the king candidates.

The Junior class itself voted on their flower, a yellow rose; theme, Heaven Tonight; song, Please Don't Go; colors, blue & silver.

A committee was chosen to order supplies, work out details and make decisions.

Music was provided by Benjy and the Be-Bops.

Saturday arrived, last minute details were fixed and Jon Bushert and Sue Davis were chosen King & Queen.

Everyone gets involved with streamers!

Just don't look down!

A NIGHT TO REMEMBER

Seniors and their dates receive red roses.

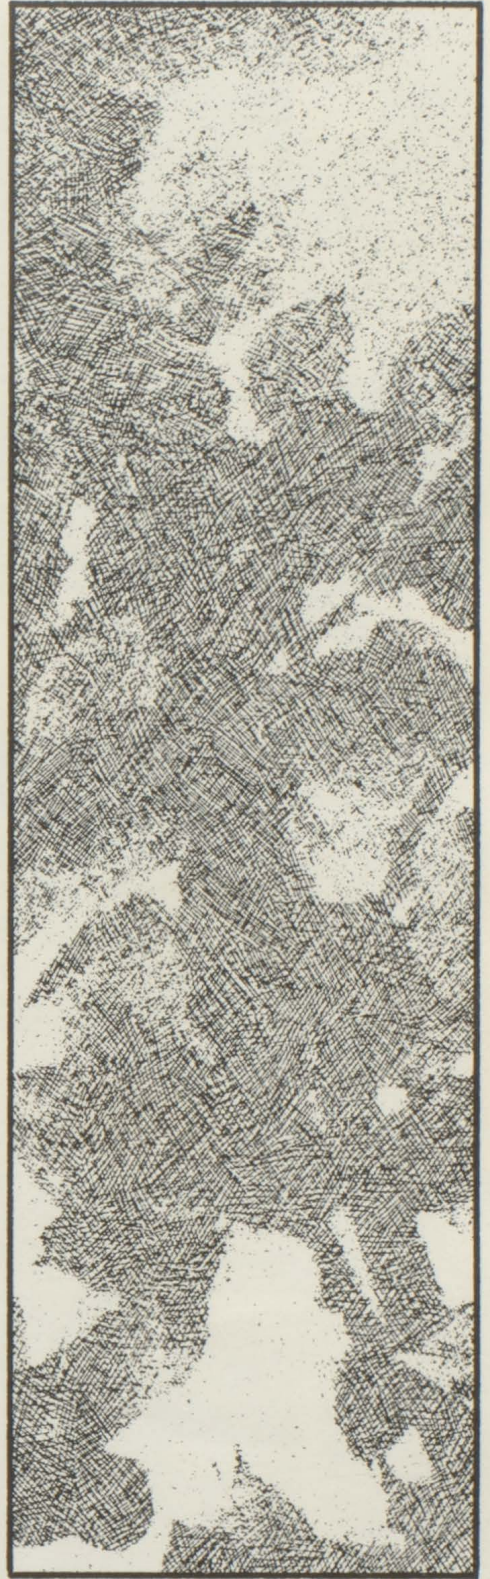

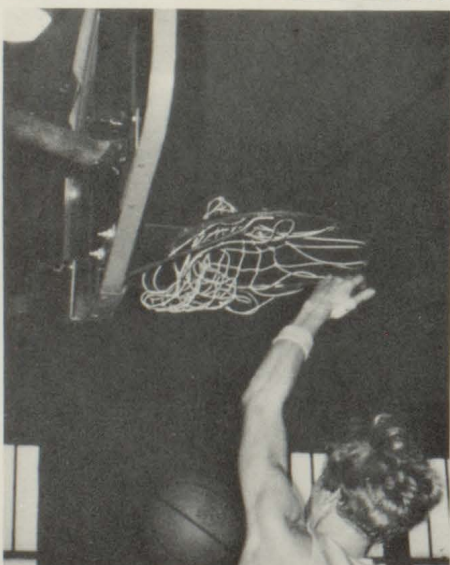

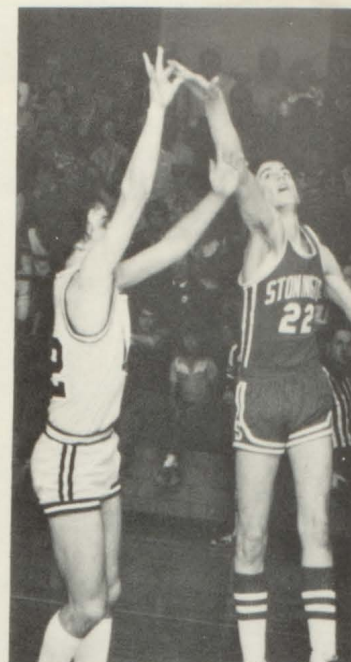

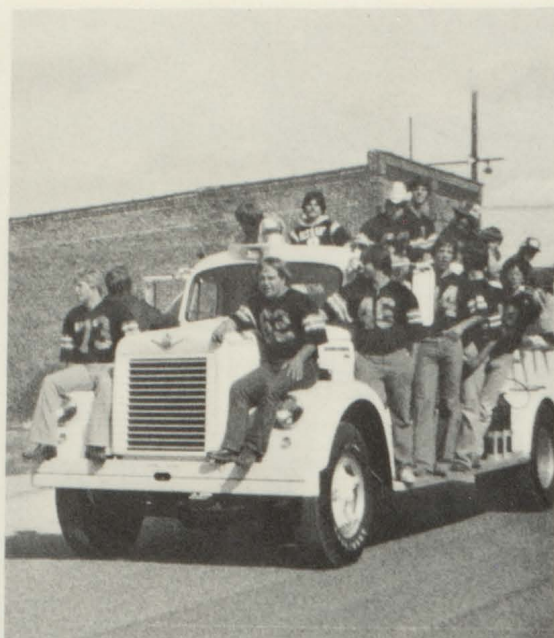

Everyone seems to be relaxed.

Wow, Tim!! Tell us another story.

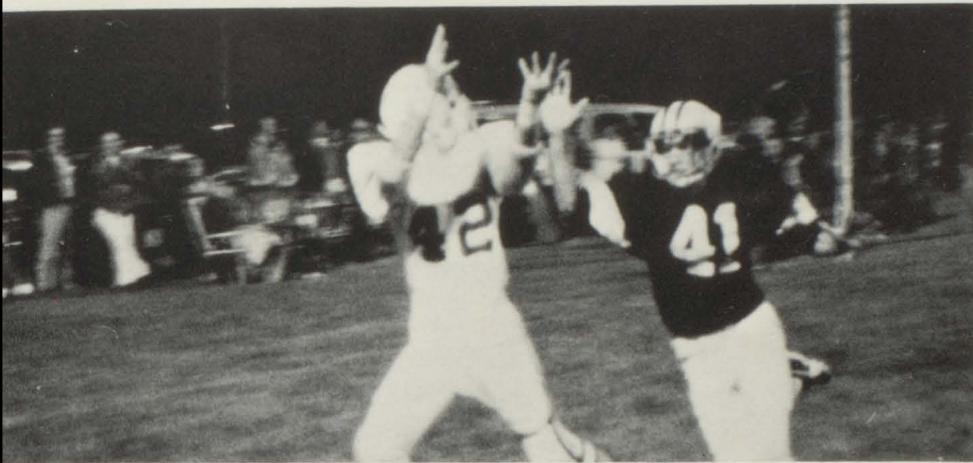

The Agony of Defeat

With a 0-9 record, the Bethany Mustangs still haven't lost their confidence. Our team still has the skill, strategy, and stamina to win—we just had a bad year. Every team can come back and we will next year. The season opened with the Arcola game. We made a good show but failed to win the game. We weren't as excited about the football season when defeated by Lovington in the homecoming game. We may not have won a game this year, but the football team has won the hearts of all of the Mustang fans.

Action is the name of the game!

Todd Dudley, #41 attempts to block a pass.

No Tim, you can't wear that on the field.

Brian Elder makes a good tackle.

No. 34, Chris Stiles takes charge on the side lines.

Coach Hurdle and Brad Elder get along "real good". Can't 'ya tell?

Was that for me?

The senior players are honored at the last home game. Those honored were: Alan Keown, Todd Dudley, Jon Bushert, Chris Stiles, Stan Smith, Doug Morris, Tim Florey, Brad Elder, Jeff Cuttill, Jim Waggoner, Tim Marshall, and Mike Fitzgerald.

I had it first!

Coach Hurdle and Coach Inman look over the football plays.

Get off your can, man!

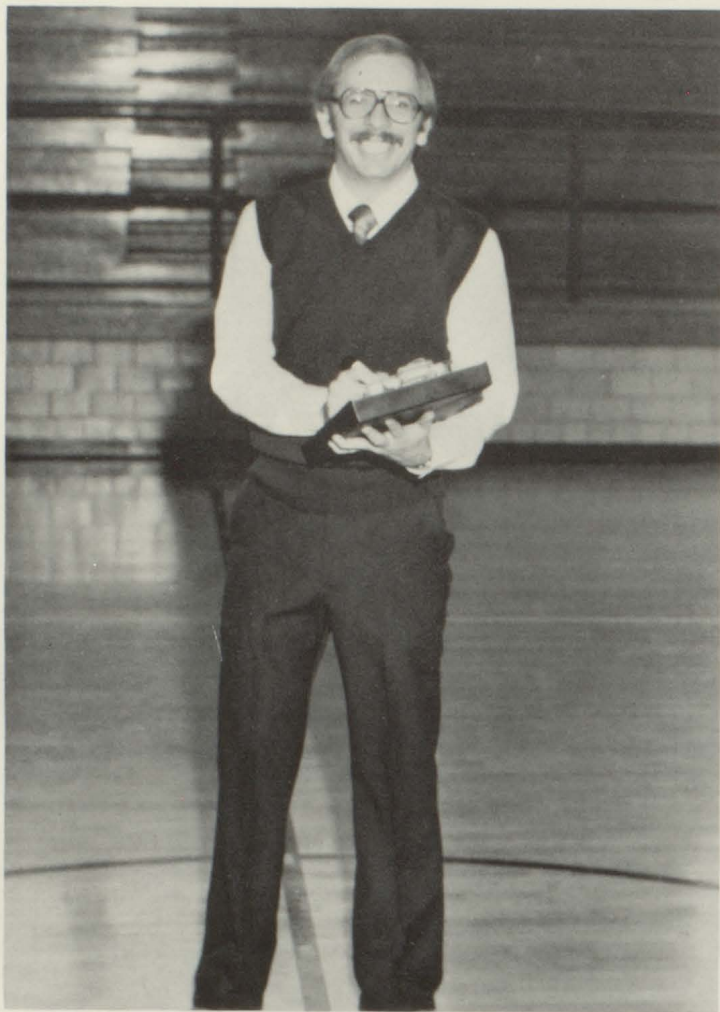

After good pursuit the Mustangs force down their opponent.

Wipe out!

MERIDIAN CHAMPS

Coach: Randy Inman

Our 1979-1980 Mustangs were definitely "ready for the 80's as we compiled a perfect 11-0 record in the tough Meridian Conference. We also finished 21-4 which included a nice 19 game winning streak. We accomplished these feats by working hard every night, playing excellent defense, believing that we were better than the team we faced every night out; and we were as Sister Sledge said a "Family". Our players can truly hold their heads high and proclaim "I am a winner," "I am a MUSTANG!"

Coach Randy Inman

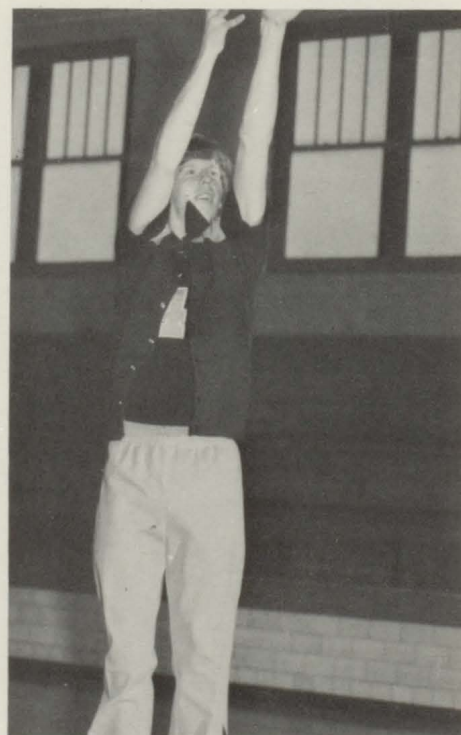

SENIORS

Doug Morris—Doug is a competitor from the word go. He provided us with some excellent play coming off the bench. He is a fine rebounder and defensive player. He is a leader and will be missed.

Bart Spencer—"Instant offensive" is the term that best describes Bart. He is an electrifying person who can knock it down from 18 or use in excellent jumping to slam dunk off the break. Bart possessed probably the best overall tools in the league and was a 2nd team All-Conference and our co. M.V.P. pick. His offensive talents will be hard to replace.

Doug Morris

Bart Spencer

Manager: Tom Hower

Tom Hower—Tom was this year's Mustang manager. He was the classiest dressed manager in the league and a lot of thanks goes to Tom and his help with the team.

Chris Stiles—Chris, I felt, was the heart of this fine team. Game in and game out he gave us the steady play we needed to win. He was the best defensive player in the league and won our Best Defensive Player award. His loss will be hard for us to overcome as we must find a new leader.

DEVELOPING NEW SKILLS

The point guards are Scott Martin, Steve Austin, and Greg Waggoner. Scott Martin's progress in ball handling has settled down our offense. On defense he is most likely to be seen diving for loose balls and ball hawking. Steve Austin, who is cast from the same mold as Scott, has the quickest hands on the team and leads the freshmen in scoring. Greg Waggoner is our other point guard and if the game seems sluggish we just insert him into the lineup and things automatically start to happen.

The wing men are primarily responsible for defensive pressure and carrying the scoring load. Mike Carroll and Dwaine Throneburg lead the team in scoring and shooting percentage. Mike is a good jump shooter from the perimeter while in contrast Dwaine will drive to the basket. When Brett Robinson substitutes for either Mike or Dwaine, our team gains more rebounding power and does not lose much in offense. Chris Davis has improved more on offense than any other player and it can be directly attributed to his desire to better himself.

The big men on our team are Kendall Mulvany, Bill Larkin, Mark Suddarth, Roger Doris and Bill Younger. Kendall has the toughest assignment in every game and that is to guard the tallest and best player on the other team. He consistently gives our team a solid defense and rebounding job. Bill Larkin has improved his total game more than anyone on the team. He gets more assertive with every game. We can expect more and better things from Bill because he does not want to let his teammates down. Mark Suddarth will be seeing more playing time because he needs more experience to get the feel of playing against players his size. Bill Younger is the most improved freshman which can be attributed to his increased aggressiveness. Roger Doris starts on the freshman team and is responsible for doing the bulk of the rebounding.

The most important lesson that this group of young men has learned is that when they step into a game they cannot give less than 100 per cent hustle and still win.

It's Keebler Elf!

You Went A Long Way Baby!

The Bethany Flying Fillies finished their season with a 17-10 record. The Fillies fought hard and went a long way. After defeating Sullivan and Arthur in the regional tourney at Sullivan, they traveled to Tolono for the Sectional. After a tough battle the Fillies were defeated by Jamaca-Sidell 73-69 in overtime. This years Fillies went farther than any team from Bethany has ever gone. Aside from bringing home the trophies from winning the regional and getting 2nd place in the sectional, they also brought home trophies from 5th place in the Newton Holiday tourney and 1st place in the Arcola tourney.

The Fillies were led by Jodi Foster who set two state records. Her four year career total was a record 2,371 points and her season total was a record 867 points. She received the free throw award for three years and the most valuable player award all four years. She was chosen to be on the Chicago Tribune All-State Team and was selected as one of the top 15 players in the state by the Champaign News Gazette. The Decatur Herald named her to be the area player of the year.

Congratulations to the Flying Fillies for a super season!

We started out with a great season of 6-0. As the season progressed, we slipped a little. We all had a lot of fun and learned a lot. We learned how to work together as a team. So look out for next year!!

MIGHTY YEARLINGS

During the past winter, the Class of 84 played their last games as a team. We won as a team and lost as a team. Through the season, Coach Jim Parsons helped promote enthusiasm and led us to a 12-6 season record. As we leave Jr. High sports, we look forward to establishing our high school careers.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT: WORKING FOR YOU

The 1979-80 Student Council has been very active this year. Student Council is a group of students, chosen by their fellow classmates, to represent the classes and organizations.

Their projects this year have included the annual Christmas party and selling key chains.

They have met with the certain requirements of being a representative, hearing both sides, and making decisions that we all are proud of.

¡HOLA! MUY BUENAS TARDES, CLASE

Senora Beals

For the first time in several years, Bethany students were allowed to enroll in a Spanish class.

Interest grew, and a Spanish Club was formed. In October, we took a field trip to the U of I to see PLATO, a computerized learning center. A Mexican party, complete with tortillas, tacos, and a pinata was our Christmas party. We took a field trip to Chicago in April to see a gold exhibit from Colombia.

Spanish, which is taught by Mrs. Beals, has turned out to be interesting, informative and fun.

WE DEVELOP LEADERSHIP QUALITIES, LEARN COOPERATION, TAKE RESPONSIBILITIES, AND GIVE SERVICE

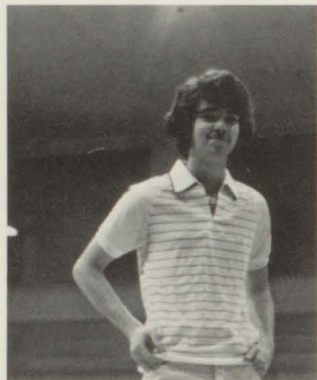

The Future Homemakers of America members' goals are to build homes of the future. We feel that a house and home aren't the same. Some of our activities this year included the Fall Rally, FHA week, the Style Show, the Easter Egg Hunt and the Spring Banquet. We've had to do away with many of our events because of lack of funds and new school rules but, we still make the best of what we do have. Each year we select two chapter mothers and two chapter sisters. This year they were Mrs. Sharp and Mrs. Moon, Cara Carter and Diane Jenkins. We work hard to develop leadership to cooperate to be responsible and to accomplish our goals.

SUPERINTENDENT

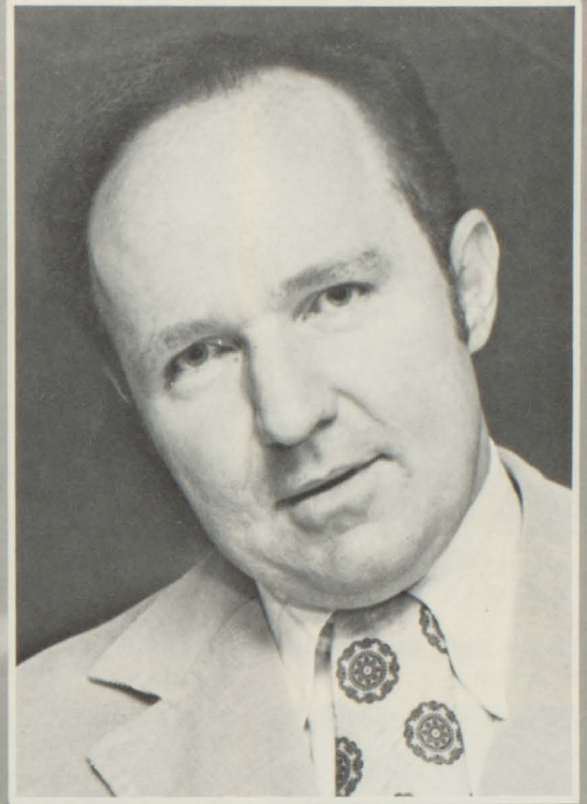

B.S. Degree: Quincy College
Masters Degree: University of Illinois

To the student body, Success is what you made it, but is judged by many people other than yourself. You must accept the responsibility of your physical, mental, moral and social development. If you try, regardless of difficulty, seek help when needed, get involved with school activities, your chances of success are unlimited.

Dear Student Body,

Graduation day will be one each of you will remember for a long time. This day marks the end of some relationships and the beginning of many others. Your future awaits. Your challenge is to build the kind of life you desire, to mold and shape yourself and your destiny, and to fulfill the many dreams each of you hold.

It has been a pleasure to know each member of the Bethany student body. Your cooperation and support during my first year at Bethany Junior-Senior High School was appreciated. I look forward to next year and the opportunity to know each of you better.

PROPHECY

It is the year 2000. The year of the 20th class reunion of the BHS class of '80. The class is gathering at Tim Kidwell's bar, "The Gulp & Slurp", in the heart of downtown Milwaukee. Unfortunately Tim couldn't be with us tonight because he is attending an AA meeting next-door. Guest speaker at the meeting is BHS's own Jim Waggoner. His topic: "The Hazards of Miller Ponies". Filling in for Kidwell is Tim "Tweetus" Marshall, Asst. Manager.

Air transportation for tonight was provided by "Big Bird Airlines", compliments of Marleia Russell, owner. Transportation from the airport was donated by "Buffy's Taxi Service", owned and operated by Jeff and Eleanor (Daniels) Cuttill. They now own a fleet of 20 yellow pickups. (Eleanor rides shotgun on request.)

Joey Beachy couldn't make it tonight because "Star Wars" is showing on TV for the 32nd time this year. Of course he sent a note from his mother.

Alan Keown has arrived but hasn't come in yet. We have been informed that he is out in his car smoking his last cigarette and listening to Black Sabbath.

Schell Bolin and Eric Allsop are here all the way from Roach Clip, Arizona where they live on the reservation of the "Tokumlof" Indian tribe.

Todd Harris just came dragging in covered with mud. He says he got his dad's Pinto stuck in a nearby government parking lot.

Speaking of dragging, Debbie Haney was the first to arrive tonight in her new Formula dragster. Her guest this evening is "Big Daddy" Don Garlits.

Suddenly there is a loud CRASH!! We see Todd Dudley sprawled out on the Floor. Oh well, he should have known better than to take Brad Elder's seat again!

We're glad to see Kelly Moon here tonight—Stand up Kelly—What?—You are?—Oh.

Dee Suddarth is here tonight. She brought her mother along to take pictures for the Echo.

Jodi Foster, Angie Davis & Lori Friesner called and said they'd be a little late. It seems their round-robin Nerf basketball tournament back in their hotel room is taking longer than expected due to numerous jump balls.

We're proud to have the "Chicago Hustle" Woman's Pro Basketball team and Head Coach Michelle Gooden here tonight. When they got off the bus, Michelle scolded them for traveling.

Mike Fitzgerald and Tom Sheehan just pulled up in their new Yamaha SRX, fuel injected, duel carb, high performance, heavy duty, racer-style snowmobiles. Funny thing is, there hasn't been an inch of snow in Milwaukee all year.

Scientist Marsha Newton has recently received a Nobel Prize for discovering the cure for chicken pox. She has since admitted that she stole the formula from Stan Smith, world reknown computer programmer. Stan has an interesting technique. He simply plugs the computer into his brain and it is instantly programmed.

Theresa Apke, now famous playwright, recently boosted her career by writing, producing, and directing the box office hit, "EARS", starring Tim Florey.

We've just received word that Darla Williamson will be DROPPING IN in any moment. She is reportedly standing on the ledge outside her 20th story hotel room. It seems someone locked her door from the outside and left her.

Joann Candage and Buddy Sanders are boycotting the reunion because we wouldn't play disco!

The bleachers along the wall are there for the family of Doug and Libby (Larkin) Morris and the Tom Hower Family. We hope there is enough room!!

Chris "Jack" Stiles was late getting here tonight because he was ambushed on the way in by a cardboard box and a trash can seeking revenge.

Jon Bushert, professional taste-tester for Skoal, Inc. left early tonight because we didn't have any spittoons.

CBS's famous female sportscaster Jeanne Luck had to be out of town tonight to cover the World Powerlifting Championships where Mitch Powell is attempting to break the World Flyweight record by lifting 101 lbs. over his head. GOOD LUCK MITCH!

Julie Austin and Steve Bone weren't able to be here tonight because they are 'getting stoned' at an Archaeology Dig.

The big crowd here tonight has kept the Gulp and Slurp's cocktail waitress Shela Hutchcraft running. (Mainly orders for Miller Ponies from that AA meeting next-door.)

Mike Andrews showed up as everyone else was leaving. He said he had to take it slow on his new Harley-Davidson because the training wheels are beginning to come loose.

Oh, Bart and Sue (Davis) Spencer didn't come tonight. It seems they insisted on holding their own 20th class reunion in Bart's basement!

1980 CLASS WILL

I, Eric Allsop, will my senior year to Brian Elder in hopes be can have more fun than I did.

I, Mike Andrews, will my place with the cooks first hour to Dave Hite. But watch for the warden—he will try and run you out!!!

I, Theresa Apke, will my ability to get along with other people and keeping my mouth shut to Don, my little brother, in hopes he will get along with kids better in the future.

I, Julie Austin, will my ability to stay awake at 7:30 AM Swing Choir practices (3 days a week) to Jon Nation, who never seems to have his eyes open.

I, Joey Beachy, will my ability to skip out and get away with it to any freshman who wants to take a chance!!!

I, Schell Bolin, will nothing.

I, Steve Bone, will the skill of being able to graduate a non-yearbook member to Sue Sharp, who has already attained a certain aptitude towards doing the same.

I, Jon Bushert, will the beater to Teresa.

I, Joann Candage, will my femininity to Elaine Lewis, for best wishes and a new look.

I, Jeff Cuttill, will my shoulders to Roy Jones so he can play football.

I, Eleanor Daniels, will my good and bad times to Rita Kesterson, who already has a good start.

I, Angie Davis, will my 2nd floor to Cheri Lambird in hopes that it will stand out farther than her nose.

I, Sue Davis, will my ability to find a good guy to the freshman girls, who don't seem to know what one is yet.

I, Todd Dudley, will my defensive driving abilities to anyone who meets Darla Williamson on the road.

I, Brad Elder, will my ability to always maintain good behavior in school and constantly control my cool to the utmost, to Steve Mayberry, who doesn't seem to have these qualities.

I, Mike Fitzgerald, will my lower voice to the Coleman twins, in hopes that they will use it in football.

I, Tim Florey, will all my nicknames to Rastus (Cheri Funk).

I, Jodi Foster, will my ability to hold Dawn Bone in cheerleading mounts to the next poor victim.

I, Lori Friesner, will my ability to not go steady with anyone all four years of high school and survive, to anyone who thinks they can survive too!!!

I, Michelle Gooden, will all my good times in high school to Colette and Jody, who already know where to find it.

I, Debbie Haney, will my tan and turquoise to Tammie Stirrett, great body to Jaylene Kidwell (Calgonite) and my six inch heels to Michelle Brown.

I, Todd Harris, will my pep rally cheerleading skirt to Mike Cuttill, who is the only person crazy enough to wear it. And I pass on my ability to run into a goal post and survive to anyone with a hard enough head.

I, Tom Hower, will my abilities to be a cheerleader and Fat Albert to anyone who is crazy enough to do it.

I, Shela Hutchcraft, will my driving ability to my sister, who will need it.

I, Alan Keown, will my beard to Don Apke, which doesn't look promising.

I, Tim Kidwell, will my daringness and driving abilities while not sober, and everyday partying to anyone who can hack it.

I, Jeanne Luck, will my short stature to my brother, David, because the taller he is, the older he looks, and looking older gets him into trouble.

I, Tim Marshall, will all my good times at B.H.S. to Cindy, Cheri, Darci and Sperry in hopes they will raise more----than I did!!!

I, Kelly Moon, will my job in the cafeteria to anyone who can put up with Connie and Emma Lou for as long as I have.

I, Elizabeth Morris, will my ability to keep my nose in my own business to a certain group of Sophomore girls, who need all the help they can get.

I, Marsha Newton, will that for the rest of their high school years, Leann Calhoun and Peggy Brewer will be known as Lulu and Piggy.

I, Mitch Powell, will my ability to stay slim and trim to Kim Gregory, who has a long way to go.

I, Marleia Russell, will my height to the Junior class, in hopes that they grow up.

I, Buddy Sanders, will my dancing ability to Judy Patrick, who has two left feet!

I, Thomas Sheehan, will my illegal gambling casinos and rum-running business (which was a multi-hundred dollar success) to Todd Jones. Also, to Dougie Hite, my superior intelligence and big build. To Roger Doris—my tobacco-free lungs. But nobody gets my Black Sabbath, Led Zeppelin, Derringer, Rush tapes, or my stereo!!!

I, Stan Smith, will my promptness at weightlifting to Brett Bone.

I, Bart Spencer, will my ability to possess a well-endowed nose to Sherry Jane Tipsword, who seems to have a pretty good start, and my height to Greg Waggoner, who could use a boost.

I, Chris Stiles, will my dedication to athletics to Brian Elder, in hopes that someday he will pass footballs as well as he receives hickies.

I, Dee Suddarth, will the pain of filling out all of these dumb little papers that the Seniors get the honor of doing to all of the lucky underclassmen.

I, Jim Waggoner, will my weight to Kim Gregory, who has a good start, and my ability to be at every party Spencer ever had to whoever thinks they can handle it.

I, Darla Williamson, will my ability to stand on the second-story ledge outside the teacher's lounge for 25 minutes (after being locked in) and then jump off, to anyone who is brave enough to try it.

Juniors

JUNIORS—WORKING HARD AND HAVING FUN

The Junior Class of 1979-80 has a special quality—we can make anything fun. We realize we'll be out of here soon, so we want to make our last years the best.

We look at being juniors as a challenge: a challenge to make decisions, accomplish goals and make school a fun place to remember. We have met many challenges and will meet more in the future. We will meet each challenge one by one and hopefully be victorious with each.

Our class is a class of achievement. We have musical, atheltic, and scholastic ability. These abilities will prevail as we go on with our future plans.

We are a class that cares. We don't let a problem slip by without it being noticed. We try to help each other out in times of need. To describe the personality of the class as a whole we would have to say that "unpredictable" fits us all.

We have always been a close group in terms of friendship. We're looking forward to our last year at BHS with high hopes and goals.

Many can't wait to graduate, but we make the best of it and try to make every minute count. We're sure that we'll leave this school with many happy memories.

On the preceding page are our class officers: Pres. Sally Boyer; V. Pres. Paul Bone; Sec. Cheri Lambird; Treas. Rick Grove; Rep. Kathy Moon.

CLASS OF '81

Could this be the result of spiked Christmas punch?

These boys really looked enthused, don't they?

It's the Junior Sex Symbols!

Brian in his natural pose.

History isn't that boring is it David?

Are Cheri and Sheryl up to something again?

Ken must be up to something with that sly grin.

I thought ducks flew South for the winter.

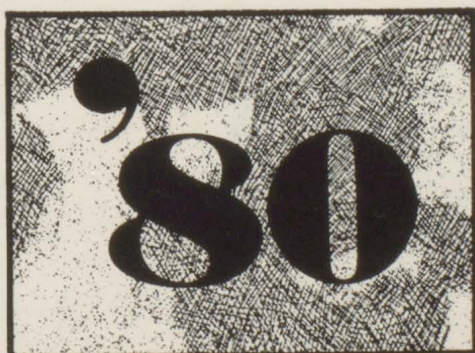

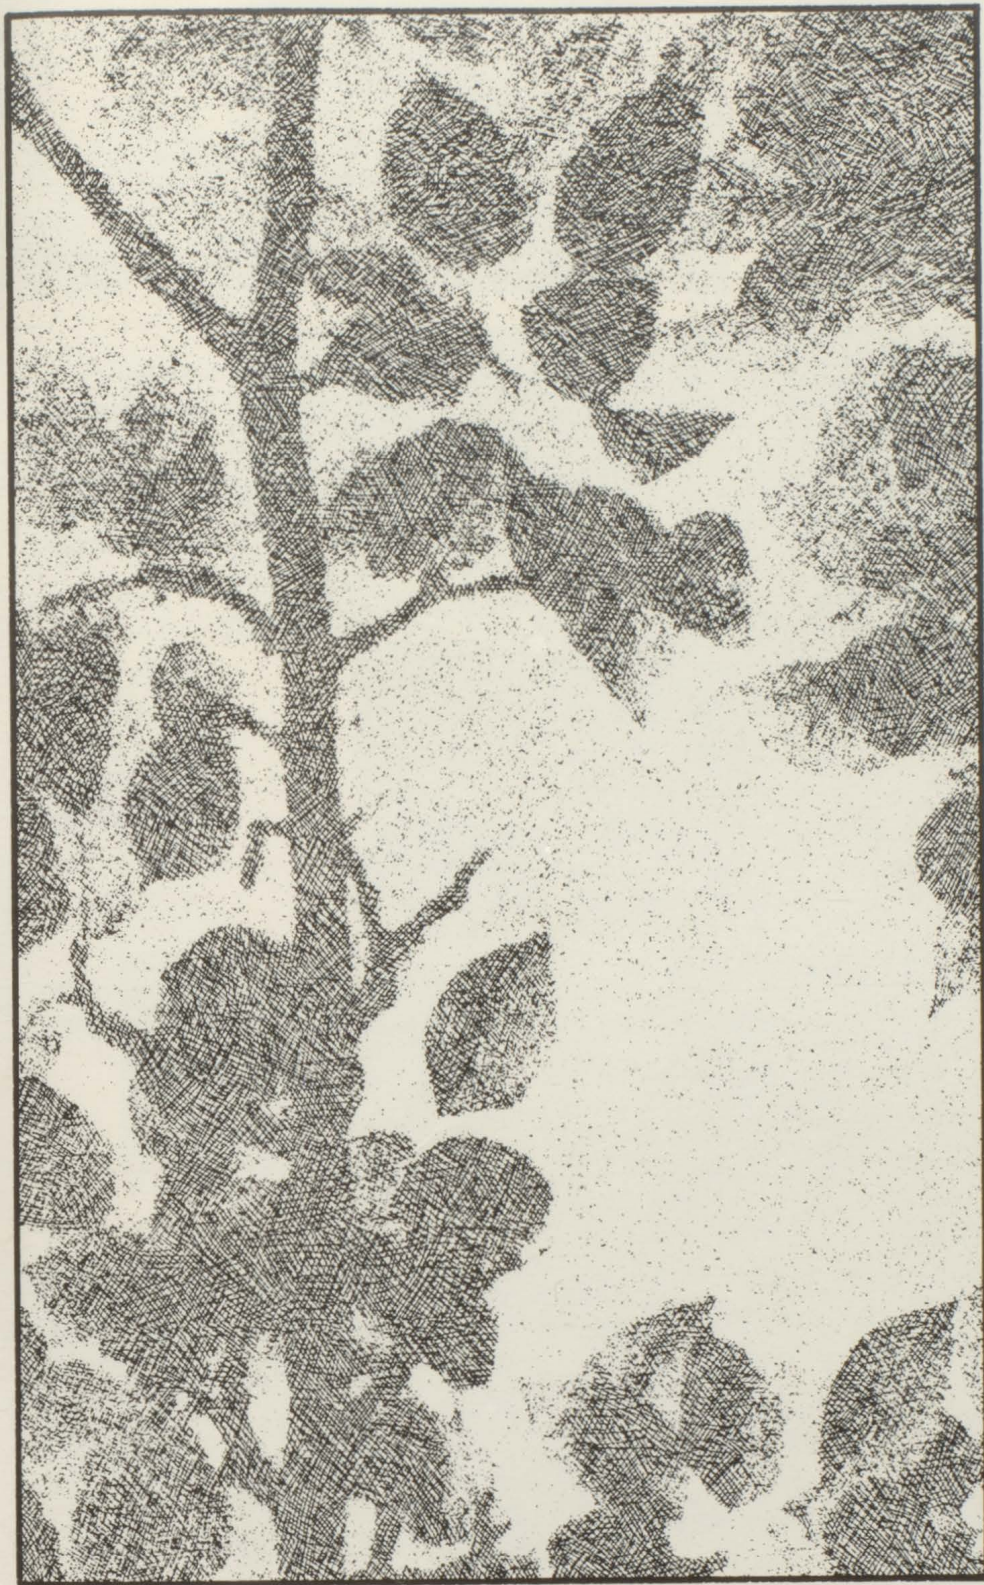

Isn't it nice how Tom shows his love for Sheryl?

Look at the camera Catfish!!!!

Juniors show that cooperation is needed in class projects.

As Sophomores, one of the biggest parts of the year was getting our drivers' licenses. We learned that the phrase "Look both ways before you cross the road" applied to more things than driving. This being our second year of high school, we are in the "Summer" of our years. We hope that our remaining years at B.H.S. will be as fun and as enriching as this year has been.

Freshmen

A NEW OUTLOOK

Starting into high school was a big change for all of the Freshmen. The Freshmen have worked hard and hope to achieve many goals through their High School years at BHS. Getting involved in activities and organizations was something new and exciting. We'll all set out hoping to improve many things. The officers of the Freshmen class are:

President, Chris Davis
 Vice president, Marilyn Goetz
 Secretary, Christina Carroll
 Treasurer, Leann Calhoun
 Reporter, Bret Bone.

Our class took a poll to see what our 7th graders for 1980 felt like the first day they came into Jr. High. Here are some of the better responses: Kathy Ray: She felt like a tiny pebble that just got kicked into a new driveway. Todd Atkinson: Felt very mixed up and hoped he wouldn't get in trouble. Michele Harris: Felt like a first grader just starting grade school. Danny Cotner: Said, "I was scared to death that I would get lost in the new building." Jennifer Dudley was glad to be with her 8th grade friends. And last but not least, Joe Keller felt excited, puzzled, and like a mouse.

Our officers for 1980 were: President, Paul Williams; Vice-President, Jennifer Dudley; Secretary, Mike Keeney.

DEDICATION

IN MEMORIUM, we, the staff of the 1979-1980 Reverie, do dedicate this Reverie to Mr. Ansell Phillippo.

Ansell joined the Personnel of Bethany High School in 1971. He worked in the school for eight years. Not only was Ansell a custodian, he was also a Jack-of-All-Trades.

We all knew Ansell personally and deeply feel the loss of his familiar presence.

To honor his memory, we respectfully dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Ansell Phillippo.

The tree is bare,
No leaves,
No sign of life,
But it's inevitable that
Spring will come,
And bring new life again.

Memories of '80, '81 are at an end.
The halls are bare, No sign of life within.
But just like the tree,
We are at the end of a season.
There will be a new beginning,
With new life, new hopes
and Different memories, memories . . .
