Class sponsors Buzz and Margie Overlot.

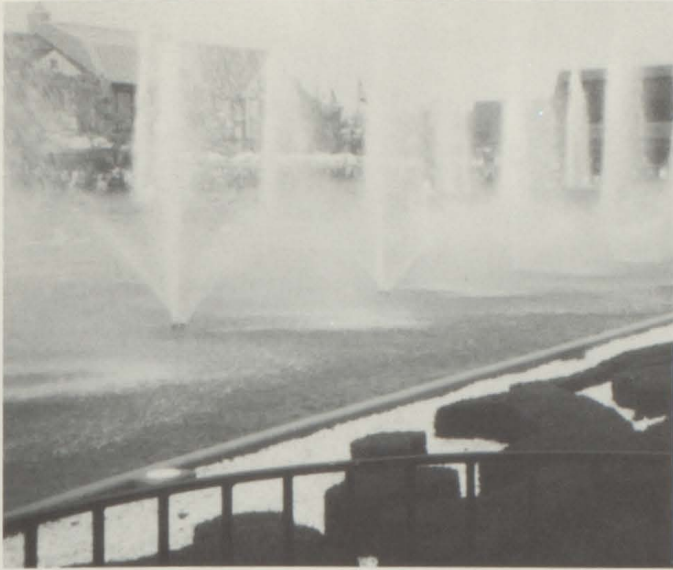

College Football Hall of Fame.

Our Senior class trip turned out to be a riot. We ended up in Springdale, Ohio.

The trip began May 13 at 7:00 A.M. accompanied by our class sponsors Buzz and Margie Overlot. Our first stop was at Tuscola where we ate breakfast at Dixies truck stop. After breakfast we were on our way again. We finally arrived at the Motor Inn Lodge after being stopped by the Indiana police for speeding. We got checked in and went to our rooms to get refreshed before going to the College Football Hall of Fame. The rest of the night we had to ourselves. Some of us went to a movie while others stayed at the lodge to swim or stay in their rooms to rest.

The second day began at 7:00. By 9:30, we were on our way to checking out and on the road to King's Island for a wild day. There were many sights to see and wild rides to be ridden. Some of us ate pizza, hamburgers and assorted candy all day. One of the rides most enjoyed by the class was the Beast, which was a roller-coaster. Half through the day it rained and lasted all day. We all met at the bus around 7:00 P.M. After everyone was at the bus we looked like drowned rats. The girls changed in the back of the bus while the boys waited; then it was their turn to change. We finally arrived back in Bethany early Sunday morning. We all had our laughter and tears. Many realized that this was the last time we'd all be together. We had many beautiful memories and achieved many of our goals. Thanks to Buzz and Margie we had a unique class trip.

THE SENIOR WILL

I, DON APKE, will get out of this school and never come back.

I, SUE ALEXANDER, will my ability to stay out of trouble (or at least not get caught) to Anita Mulvany and Jennifer Dudley (who have a good start) and to my brother John (who needs it). Then I will leave this @#%&* place!

I, STEVE AUSTIN, will a book of clichés to Mrs. Duncan, in hopes that she will enjoy the gobbledygook that I wrote, very very very much.

I, BRET BONE, will the challenge to anyone who thinks they can get kicked out of the library more times than I.

I, MINDY BONE, will my courage to any girl under 5'4" who wants to go with a guy over six feet tall. By the way, I'll throw in my step ladder, too.

I, PEGGY BREWER, will all the "wheatie" episodes they can handle to Paula H., Kelly A., Renée L., and Jill M.

I, ANGIE BUTT, will my fun times to my sister Lori. My big mouth to the Junior girls. And my last name to David K. since he doesn't have one.

I, LEANN CALHOUN, will my ability to take a joke to Rhonda Gregory, to Jana Foster, I will my ability to go to Shelbyville without getting caught (but seriously), and I also will my long legs to Kari Harmon with hopes that someday hers will sprout.

I, CHRISTINA CARROLL, will my driving ability to Melissa McReynolds in hopes that one day she will get the opportunity to drive such an elegant car as the "Hearse."

I, BARRY COLEMAN, will my ability to look alike to the Richardson twins, who don't.

I, BRIAN COLEMAN, will my ability to keep a good rhythm to Tamra, who never knew how.

I, LAURA COMPTON, will my ability to get along with people to any unfortunate person who has to ride the vocational bus with the same group that I did.

I, LAURA CRAIG, will my ability to skip Mondays to anyone who needs it.

I, CHRIS DAVIS, being of extremely sound mind and sound "upper body," hereby will the following: My celibate and abstaining habits to the Sophomore girls, my ability to get along with everyone to Jack Bolsen, and lastly, my compassion for human life to the "Mercenary" - Steve Young.

I, LORI DORRIS, will my P.E. shorts to anyone who has the courage to wear them.

I, MARILYN GOETZ, will my big nose to Daren N., but it looks like he already has a good start. I also will my ability to get over things to Mr. M., who I think never will.

I, LARRY GREGORY, would will everything my parents never gave me to Bob Orris, but he already has them.

I, ERIC HARRIS, will my hot rodding tendencies to Darin Gordon and my Led Zeppelin tapes to Jeff Rauch.

I, JIM KELLY, will if you will.

I, RITA KESTERSON, will all of my good-times here at BHS to my brother Larry, and all of my partying to Jennifer Dudley and Anita Mulvany who seem to have a good start.

I, JAYLENE KIDWELL, will the U.F.O. to David Cross.

I, DAVID LUCK, will my height to my little brother in hopes that someday he'll be able to cream me in basketball.

I, JACKIE McMAHAN, will to the incoming Freshman band members, all the fun times with Mrs. Lindvahl, who'll find out what I mean, and to Chris Brewer I will my ability to keep the basketball team laughing. Humor her please.

I, STEVE OZEE, will some of my girls to David Bone, and some of my whiskers to Mark Davis.

I, LISA PATTILLO, do hereby will: To Anita Mulvany my age so she can go to Krackers on Friday and Saturday nights, and not have to wait until Sunday. To Niff - to someday be able to get a tan on her legs. To Ronda - to someday have a jumping Jimmy Jr. You've all been the best friends a person could have!

I, BRETT ROBINSON, will my ability to not do homework and still get good grades to my brother Bart who already has the first half of it mastered.

I, GAYLA SHAIN, will my good year in BHS to my brother Bill, my ink pens to Eric Harris, and my long fingernail to Rita Kesterson.

I, JACKIE SHEEHAN, will my dunking ability to Stephanie Shelton, my knees to Michelle Fitzgerald in exchange for her ankles, and my trumpet solos to Jana Foster.

I, LORI SUDDARTH, will to my cousin Chuck Grove the ability to keep up the good job of bugging Mr. Syfert next year, to David Kirkwood the thrill and excitement of BHS (Ha! Ha!) his next three years here, and last but not least, I will gladly leave this place.

I, JENNIFER TAYLOR, will my alto saxophone solos in Jazz Band to Melissa McReynolds, in hopes that she can learn to improvise like I never did.

I, JR THRONEBURG, will my basketball shoes to Larry Kesterson so he can at least play on the Varsity next year.

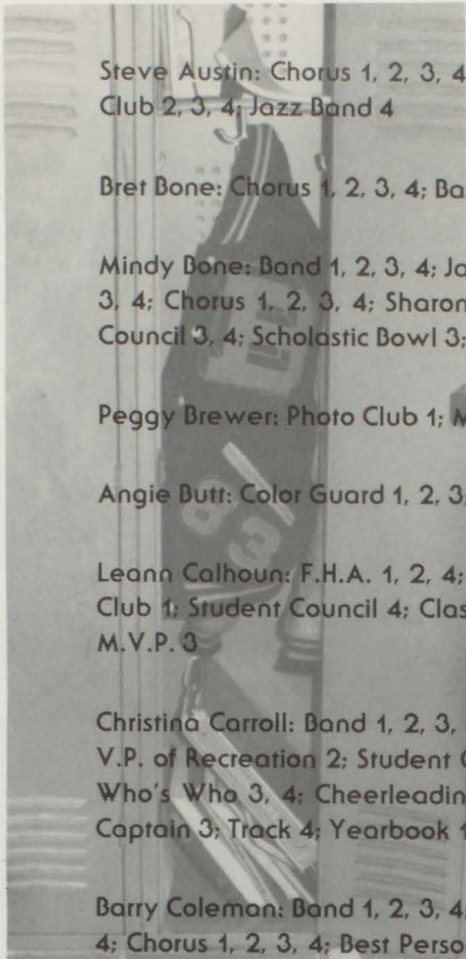

I, LISA TIPSWORD, will my skipping school ability, my tapes, and my keep to the red truck to my brother Mike! Also to Anita M., Jennifer D., and Kim L. I will them the ability to run around Sullivan without getting in a fight and maybe someday soon they can get their claws into Paul Highland and Jim Dicke. (but Kim to keep David!) To Judi Davis the ability to do what we did the last day of school all through her years at BHS.

I, DIANE WAGGONER, will to my new little sister Kelly the best of luck at BHS.

I, GREG WAGGONER, will my intimidating attitude to Lyndall Rawlings in hopes that he will use it well.

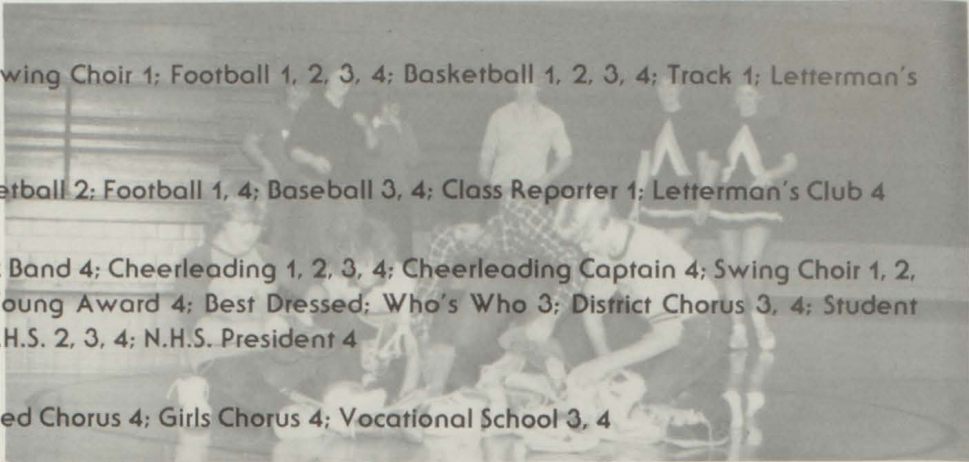

I, LORI WISZO-WATY, will my size 13 cheerleading skirt to anyone who is big enough to fit in it. (I wasn't!)

I, BILL YOUNGER, will, well, I can't think of anything to will so I guess I won't will nothing.

JUNIORS

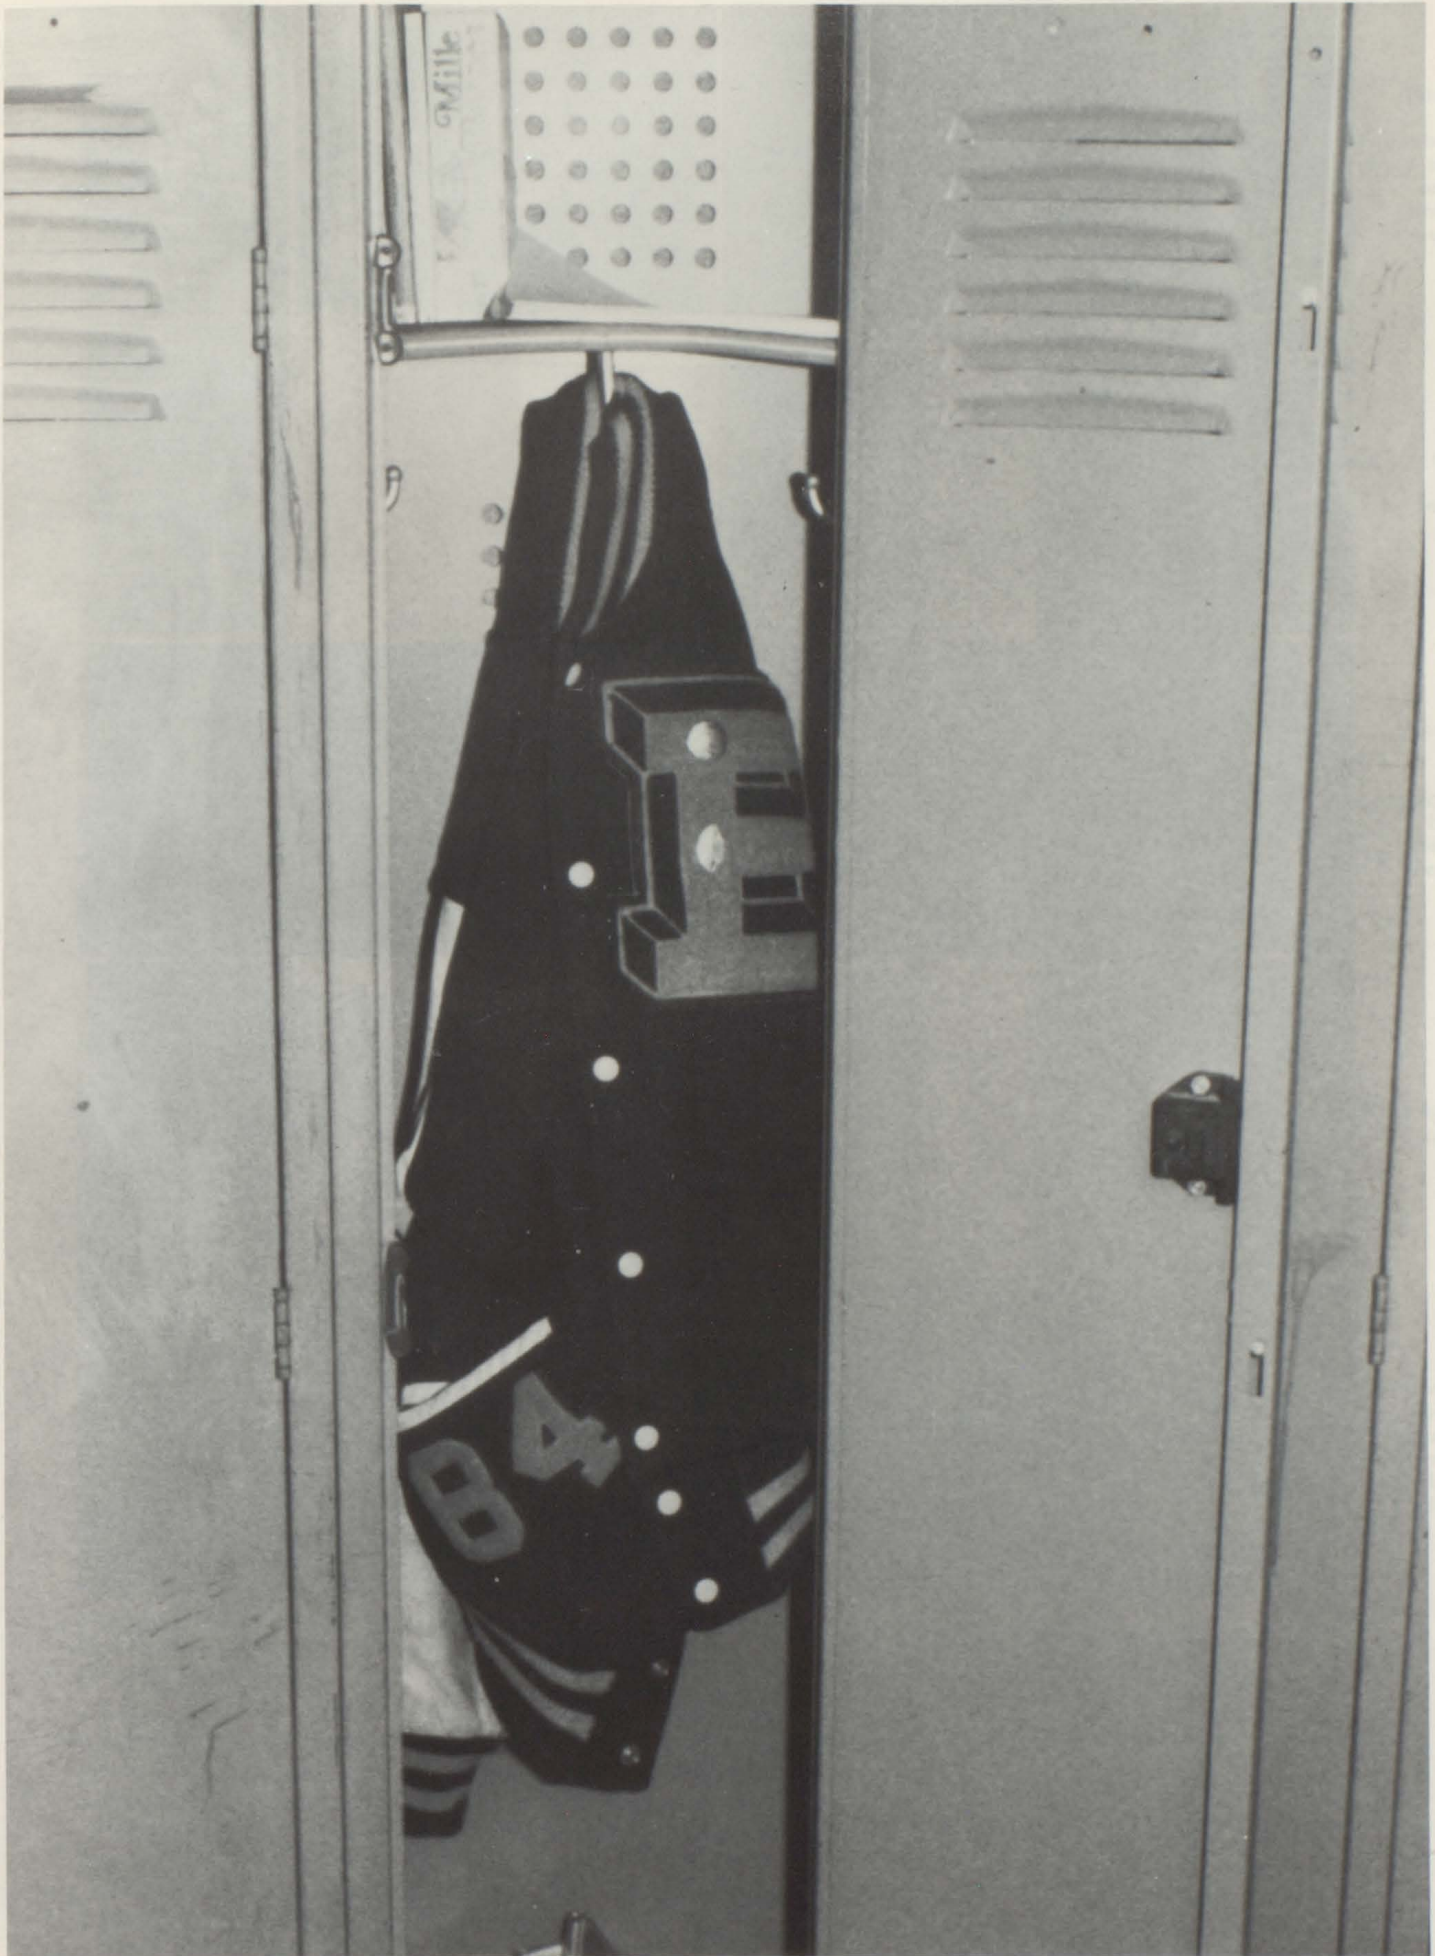

Welcome to the 20 year reunion of the class of 1983. The year is 2003 and we are meeting at the Sullivan Pizza Hut, owned and operated by Jim Kelly. There he is now over in the corner keeping everyone up-to-date on what has happened to all the old Sullivan and Lovington guys and girls. No one really cares.

Bret Bone was the first one here tonight so he could inspect for fire hazards. Jim O'Brien refused to come tonight because he was sure no one would remember him. Jaylene Kidwell must be here tonight, we can't see her but man can we sure hear her. Larry Gregory is unfortunately in the hospital after walking down Cerro Gordo St., Decatur with his Ku Klux Klan suit on. Lori Suddarth came here tonight with her husband but is presently looking for Bill Camfield. Speaking of Bill, he and David Luck are out in the parking lot bowling, but with no balls or pins. Mr. Car himself, Eric Harris, just walked in with a dazed look in his eyes, mumbling about a 454 hi-rise turbo something or other. Peggy Brewer won't be here tonight since Sullivan is having their reunion tonight, too. Steve Hozee came in accompanied with his date, a former member of our faculty. Bethany-loyal Lisa Tipsword and Sue Alexander showed up wearing their Sullivan Redskins T-shirts. Rich Camfield left already to go look for a fight. He was with his good friend and inspiration Jack Daniels. Steve Austin came tonight wearing an outfit from his new line of clothes. It's called, "The Pookie-Bear" look. Laura Craig is here and is now a successful business woman with the Charmin Toilet Paper Co. Don Apke, now rich and famous, is here tonight just after releasing his new hit single, "12-votes, 6-votes it don't Make!!! Angie Butt, now owner of Bethany Sales Co., is accompanied by none other than the notorious Pete Fowler. On a more serious note, Christina Carroll, Mindy Bone, and Jennifer Taylor are in the corner arguing as to who's been most successful these 20 years. Jackie Sheehan stayed home tonight so she could watch the soap operas her mother taped for her. Boy, there's a depressed looking Dr. Chris Davis. Small wonder why either. He tried to donate his body to science and the only group interested was a garbage company.

Diane Waggoner and husband Jim barely made it here tonight. It was awfully hard trying to get away from the Rooster Farm. Lori Wiszo-Waty is inquiring as to if anyone knows a good lawyer. She's dying to change that last name of hers. Greg Waggoner and Brett Robinson, famous authors, are discussing whose book is better. Greg's book is based on his life and is entitled "Just Showin' Off," while Brett's book is entitled, "Dealing with the Unexpected." Marilyn Goetz is here tonight but hasn't been able to say much because her mouth is crammed with food. Bill Younger was here earlier but had to leave because his mother didn't want him out too late. Rita Kesterson would like for everyone to hurry and finish eating so she can get those dishes to the Bethany High School cafeteria and start washing. Brian Coleman is just standing around letting all the girls remember why he was voted "Best Looking Boy" in our class. Atta boy Hugh, Jr. Well look over there. There's Leann Calhoun telling everyone the exciting story of how she tripped over the half-court line at the sexual against Jamaica-Sidell. Ooooh, Lori Dorris is badly limping. She sneezed earlier and threw her knee out. Why, Lisa Patillo is just sitting over there by herself. Oh, no wonder, she's engrossed in another one of her Harlequin Romances. Barry Coleman came tonight only so he could tease and make fun of everybody. How did he get voted "Best Personality" anyway? This is terrible but Jackie McMahan is in prison! She was sent up the river for dating a man who appeared to be three times her age. Tracey Wehner and Cathy Hutchinson are over at the snack bar eating all the green M&M's. Susie Cole has a job she can handle. She's inspector #42 double B at the Playtex factory. Nurse Laura Compton is here tonight wearing a rubber glove. She's trying to get all the boys to turn their heads and cough. Junior Throneburg came in dribbling a basketball but after a few hours at the bar he is once again dribbling, without the basketball. And last but not least, Gayla Shain came tonight with all her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Gayla doesn't work in a store but she is into produce.

Written with Total Respect
but not Total Sincerity,

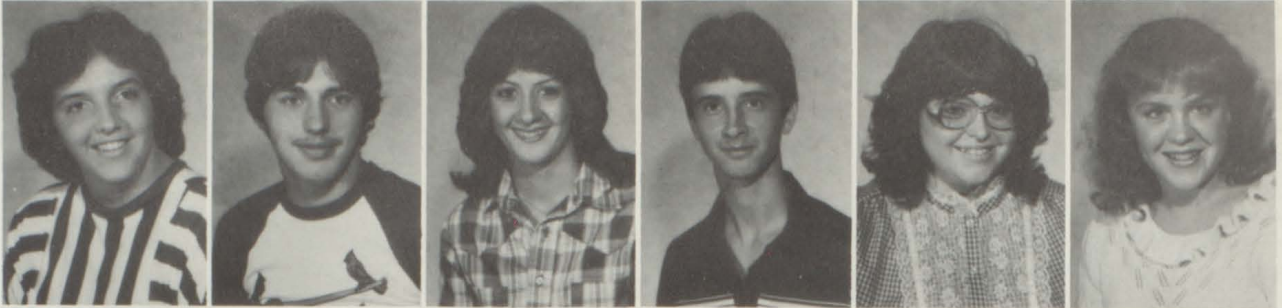

Chris, Waggs and the Rat.

Junior class officers this year were: President – Darryll Kelly, Vice-President – Todd Enz, Secretary – Chris Brewer, and Treasurer – Paul Nation.

Like the Junior class was like a totally awesome experience for most everyone. It was like really academically difficult, you know; I'm talking gross out – gag me with a spoon. We like really enjoyed all the extracurricular activities, if you know where I'm coming from.

Like the money we earned from, like magazine sales, and concessions allowed us to have an awesome prom.

Like our sponsors were Mrs. Duncan and Mr. Reinhart and they did a totally awesome job.

Look out senior year – Here we come – Fer sure, Fer sure!!!

Welcome to one of the very many sophomore memories wrenched from the lockers of our minds. Why look! There's an old sock. Let's look within it. Mercy! It's a collection of the sophomore money making schemes. We'll scrape a little lint and fungus off, so we can examine it closer. Here's the sophomore bake sale, and here's the Easter egg basket raffle. Well, throw the sock over your shoulder, and we'll look for something else. A pair of mangled glasses, rusted with age! It was nice to rummage through the locker of our minds, it gives us something to remember.

The 1982-83 year was a very exciting year for the Freshman class. At Homecoming, we received first place for our float. Allison Harris was our class attendant.

Mrs. Harshman and Mrs. Selby were our class sponsors. As a fund raiser, tins of candy were sold and we profited much money.

We hope our next few years at B.H.S. are just as fun and great as this year was.

This year the 8th grade went on their class trip to Springfield. They started the day off by going to the new and old State Capitol, then to Lincoln's home, ate lunch at the Heritage House, then went on a water slide. Their class sponsors this year were Mrs. Parrish and Mrs. Beals. They sold candy the first semester as a fund raising project.

Queen Mindy Bone.

Candidates LeAnn Calhoun and Susie Cole.

This year for Homecoming we selected Mindy Bone as queen, a worthy recipient. The Freshman float received first; the Juniors second, Sophomores third and the Seniors fourth. The Cheerleaders planned a fun Homecoming week. We had black and gold day, hat day and something new, punk rock day. This was a fun change! Thanks cheerleaders! To make the Homecoming the best, the football team had a victory over Assumption. Good job Mustangs! This was a happy and very memorable Homecoming for us all!

This year's Bethany Mustang basketball team finished the season at 9-15. The record is not the true indicator of this team. They were in every game but two during the season and played with great spirit and drive throughout.

Despite the won-loss record, these young men were responsible for others to be proud to be a Mustang. Those players who graduate will be missed because of their drive and leadership.

This summer we attended camp at Vincennes University. We received a spirit stick for the first time in years. We worked hard, learned a great deal, and had a GREAT time.

Marge Overlot was our sponsor.

Our fund raisers were cake raffles and sales, and we took part in the Fall Festival dunking machine to raise a good sum of money for our squad.

Our pep rallies were ALWAYS filled with excitement. We had a class competition which the Juniors won. We had a pac-man routine, style show, teachers balloon popping contest, fruit pass, and all kinds of excitement.

So to our squad of 1983 . . . GOOD JOB!!!

For All State

Chorus is not all fun, games and an easy credit like some people think. This year we worked hard and it paid off when all four choral groups received first place at contest. We also had four young musicians chosen for All State. This was an opportunity to play and sing with other talented musicians all over Illinois. Teresa Webner and Christina Carroll performed in the State Capitol with the All State chorus while Jana Foster performed with the Honors Chorus at the Prairie Capitol Convention Center. David Hagerman performed at the same place but with the All State Band.

Director Mrs. Crowder

The Marching Mustangs

Our Drum Major, David Hagerman.

Well . . . our band finally did it. We won first overall at EIU Marching Contest. Way to go! We did something new this year; we had a halftime highlight concert. During this concert we played our marching show music and other music we played throughout the marching season. Also during this concert Mrs. Lindvahl gave outstanding awards in marching. Barry Coleman – outstanding male marcher, Jackie Sheehan – outstanding female marcher, Brian Coleman – outstanding percussionist, Jackie MaMahon – outstanding spirit, Amanda Bone – most improved marcher, and Jacque Harris – outstanding color guard. Congratulations! After the show we had a fun time. We never knew that Mrs. Lindvahl was so good at basketball.

If you want to have fun and feel like you've done something worthwhile and rewarding, join band. You won't regret it.

This year the concert band received another first rating at Organizational Contest. We were the only band in the morning to get straight firsts. During the Spring Awards Concert Jackie Sheehan received the John Phillip Sousa Award and Brian Coleman received the Arion Award. The band gave Mrs. Lindvahl a director's chair and the Seniors gave her a plaque. She also surprised the Seniors by dedicating a song to them which she sang. We'll never forget her and how special she is.

This year the Jazz Band went to the EIU Jazz Band Festival for the first time. We competed against Class C bands and came away with second place. That's pretty good, I'd say. Our numbers were "Soul Squeeze", "Nice and Easy," and "Sunday Drive." At the Spring Awards Concert Barry Coleman received the Jazz Band Award. Just think Seniors, no more getting up early on Tuesday and Friday mornings.

David, you know that Mindy belongs to Barry.

La Señora Beals

Rebecca with Ernesto

This year the Spanish Club has been very busy. On November 17, 1982 we went to the Masonic Temple in Decatur to see the Spanish American Dancers, and afterwards we went to eat at Bonanza. On November 21, a few of us went to the Assembly Hall in Urbana-Champaign to see the Broadway play "Evita," which was about the (In-?)famous wife of President Juan Perón of Argentina back in the 1940's. We also watched the video tapes of "The Man From La Mancha" and "El Cid" on Kevin McReynolds' VCR.

To keep up with tradition, we decided to have Kevin McReynolds massacre the piñata as last year, because Kevin had merely decapitated it then. This time we tied the piñata in a small room adjacent to the Home Ec's kitchen. Because of the room's size, Kevin did not have much swinging space, so when he heaved his mighty club to slay the piñata, we were more horrified than ever before. We fled for protection behind the curtains, the door and under the bed. Suddenly, it was time. Kevin swung with a gargantuan's strength, and smashed that piñata straight to you-know-where. The force of his blow was so cataclysmic, that the candy in the piñata fired out like a grenade blast. A few pieces lashed Mrs. Beals in the face, disfiguring her horribly, but she quickly recovered, much to our relief. We scrambled for the candy, although most had crumbled to dust upon impact with the room's walls and floor (and ceiling and Mrs. Beals' face).

Ernesto de Moraes Leme Neto, seen on this page with Rebecca Dickens, was a new member of the Spanish Club. He is from São Paulo, Brazil, a foreign exchange student staying in the U.S. from mid-December to mid-February. His language is Portuguese, similar to Spanish. We found this out when he taught us some phrases in Portuguese commonly used by Brazilian teenagers, but will not be translated here, for obvious reasons. He made many friends during his stay here at BHS, and we hope that he will come back and visit us from time to time.

This year some members of the Club have hoped to go to Mexico, so we began our money-making. We sold orange drink and doughnuts in the mornings, and various types of imported candy during the day. Hopefully we will be able to make it to Mexico, but once we're there, we will make sure Kevin keeps his distance from any piñatas hanging in the shops.

Vocational school is an opportunity for students from area schools to improve certain skills. During the last 3 years students from B.H.S. have been able to catch the school bus at 7:45 A.M. to attend DAVC. At DAVC there are many areas in training you may take. The most common among the Bethany students are Cosmetology, Mechanics.

Each year there has been an average of 4 students attend. At vocational school you go 5 days a week for 4 hours a day. Thanks, Shirley.

OUR CULINARY CUTIES

COOKS — Emma Lou Funk, Connie Carlyle, Nadine Phillippo (substitute)

Emma Lou Funk

Connie Carlyle

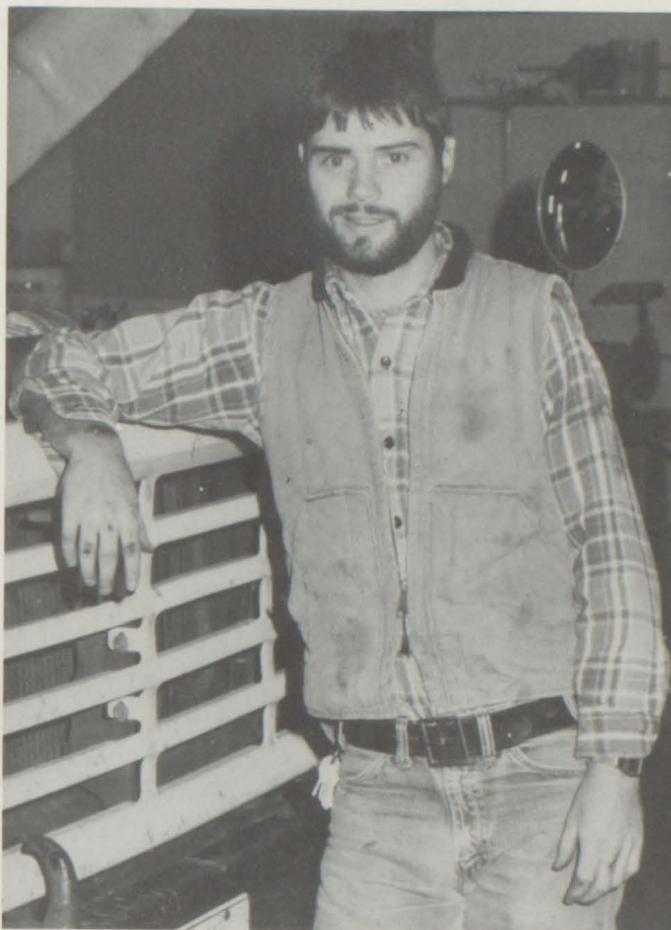

The new lunch program showed new highs in the lunch counts. This year our cooks tried a new dish, taco salad. Most of the students enjoyed the changes they made, but we all still like the homemade cinnamon rolls.

The cooks' kitchen helpers this year were: Jr. High, Jim Hutchcraft, Brenda Carlyle, and Louis Clark. The High School helpers were Rita Kesterson and Jay Kidwell. Seniors Rita and Jay would like to say good luck to the next years helpers and to be nice to our Connie and Emma Lou.

THESE ARE THE PEOPLE WHO KEEP THINGS TOGETHER

Custodian, Glenda Riggs

Maintenance, Hans Fox

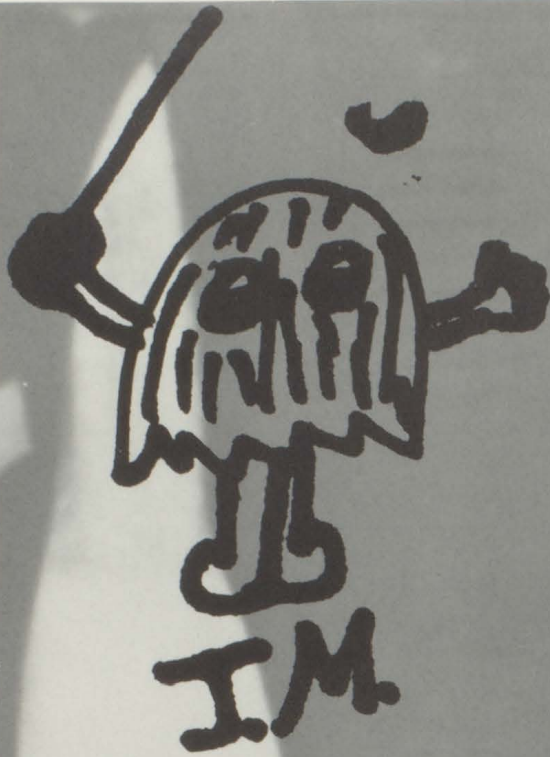

Custodian, Ron Elder

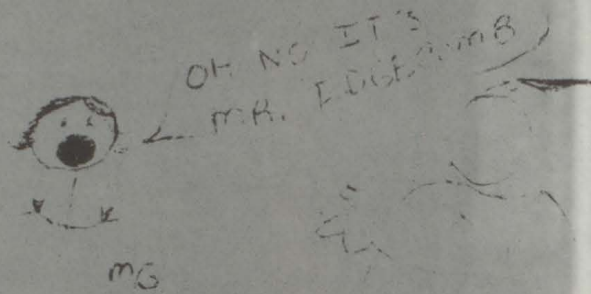

Our custodians and maintenance men are a big help in keeping our school together. During the afternoon Ron always had trouble remembering where he put his cleaning cart since it was always being hid from him. Glenda was one to get you out of study hall just to help move things around and then receive a Pepsi as a reward. Hans was one who worked by going to the second hour Shop IV class and talking about the baseball season with the guys.

The year wouldn't have lasted the way it did if they wouldn't have worked together to keep the school going.
