At pre-game warm-ups, the Mustangs are practicing to get motivated.

Jeff Callahan, Mike Bryant, and Rick Shutter end their summer waiting for football practice to begin.

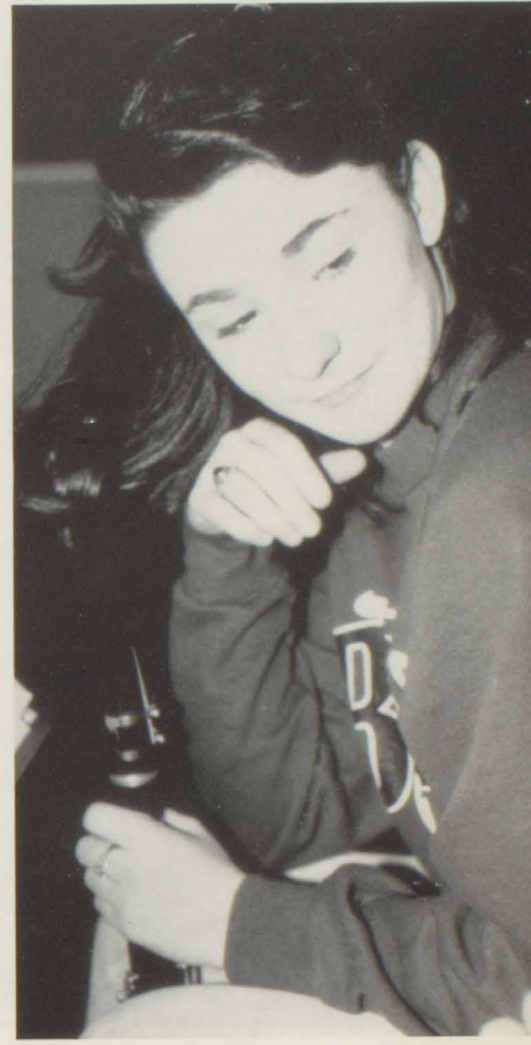

Above: Shannon Phillips, Nicci Fite, and Angie Duncan enjoy spending leisure time after the homecoming parade.

Right: Amanda Kaiser's babysitting job will end with the coming school year.

The yearbook photographer, Lisa Crawley, shoots some summer pictures.

Sheryl Ozier gives "the look" to whomever said it was supposed to snow tonight.

Mrs. Lane and Mr. Reinhart are enjoying the nice breeze during the Homecoming parade.

Enjoying the great outdoors are eighth graders Andi Smith, Bretta McCain, Lindsay Patrick, and Shannon Phillips.

All that is missing from this picture are a few potted ferns.

Now, let's go into the faces of the nineties! Wearing the surprised look is S. Wise, S. Phillips, and J. Bennett.

Modeling the fall bugged look is Alison Ferguson.

Elizabeth Brewer is showing us the wind blown look, which is now back in style after a brief lull.

Joe Inman tries to hide his face from the camera, but obviously he didn't succeed.

Angie Dixon gives us the serious look of the nineties. Most likely this look will catch on quick.

Pretty faces all in a row! Mrs. Gibbons, Mr. Peterson, Mr. Patient, and Mr. Robinson show their appreciation for our basketball team.

Facial expressions say everything. Apparently, Alan Lily is not impressed.

Football practice must have been horrible. Look at these faces!

Student Life

A student's life consists of not only homework but goofing off as well.

Pictured on both pages, clockwise:

Mark Chilton is taping the Junior's float together in the hopes it's not windy on parade day.

Harv evidently doesn't like what Jill Fultz wrote on her paper.

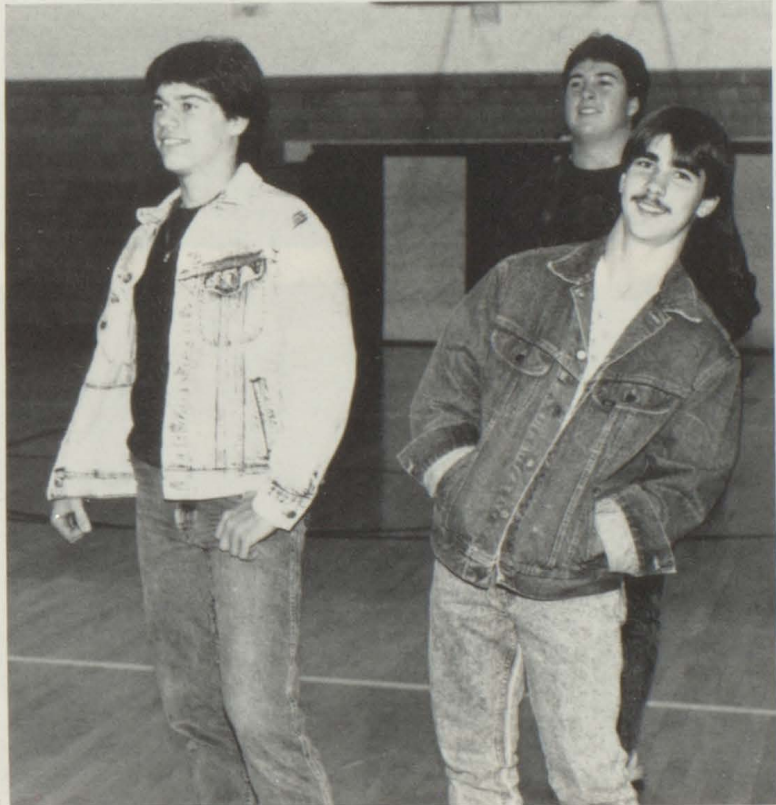

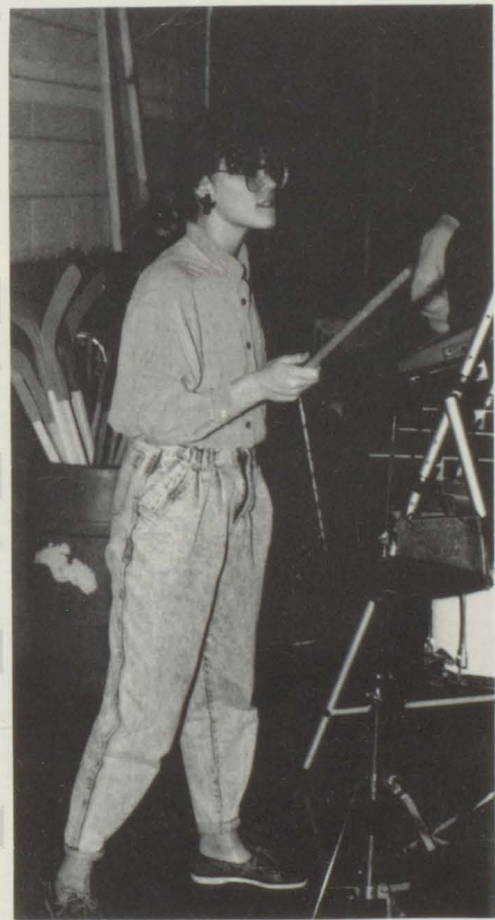

A mob of junior high kids leaves the gym after a hardy lunch.

Carrie Harshman, Alisha McReynolds, and Leah Matheson decided to take a nap in the gym after a long morning.

Craig and Jeremy Harshmans sway to the beat.

Janet Osborn is waving her magic wand and (POOF!) all of the instruments start to play. Angie Duncan, Jamie Scott, and Brandi Moody are in the gym waiting for something ... or someone. (?)

The hallway is an essential part of a student's life. It's where all the action is. As we wander down the hall of fame, we stumbled across Brooke Gregory. She was willing to be late for her next class to smile for our camera.

Joe Inman gives his impression of One-Eyed Willy to an uninterested and unimpressed crowd.

Carrie Harshman roams the halls asking anyone she sees for a glass of water.

Between classes Ella Doris shows off her JAWS impression.

Jenny Rutherford strolls down the hall looking enthused.

In the junior high hall, Steve Chilton converses with Jason Bennett.

Tara Martin and Ryan Martin (no relation) are visibly showing their reluctance to venture into the hallway.

Kris Gibbons is trying out his awesome powers on Dan Smith.

Nicole McCabe and Andi Marshall are taking a break and haunting the halls.

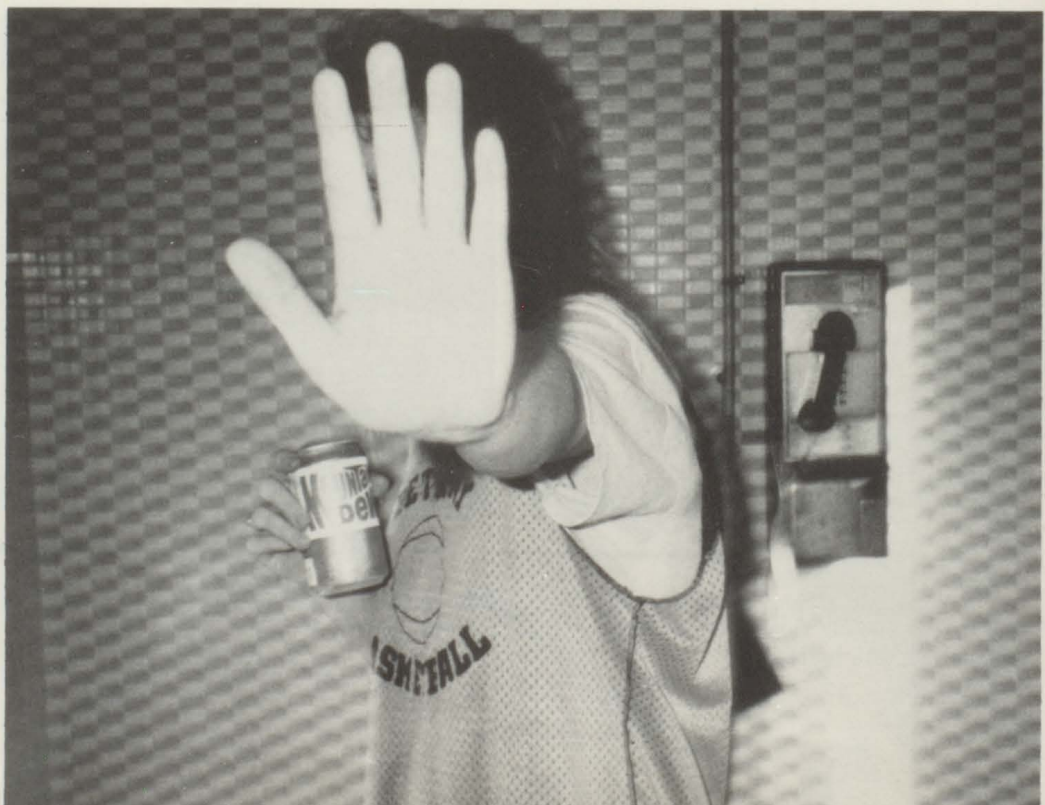

After practice some athlete's like to just goof off. Below, C. Smith chases the football while D. Fultz and D. VanLoon watch. As for R. Martin we have no idea what he is doing.

M. Winskill is in deep concentration as she gets ready to shoot the ball.

B. Bertini doesn't seem too interested in playing his saxophone; however, K. Miller seems to enjoy playing hers.

After a rough basketball practice, K. Bunfill really didn't want her picture taken.

Below: J. McBride, after graduating from high school, looks forward to a career of professional table lifting.

C. Harshman looks sly as she tries to sneak into the library unnoticed.

E. Titus, K. Miller, T. Russell desperately look for a typo in the morning announcements.

L. Patrick and L. Yarnell studiously keep stats at the Junior High basketball game.

R. Shutter plays quarterback in the gym.

L. Fleshner tries to learn by osmosis as she walks down the hall.

Karen Miller, cheerleading sponsor, turns away from the camera as we try to take her picture.

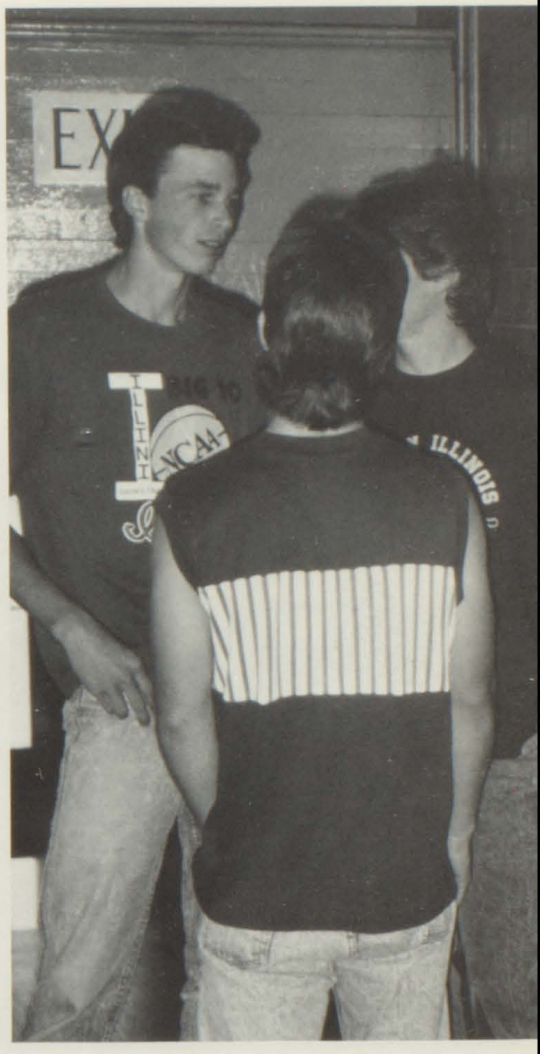

J. Callahan, M. Bryant, and R. Shutter the three bums.

The Big Three: D. Shelton, S. Harshman, C. Harshman.

Smiling sweetly for the camera is Alison Ferguson.

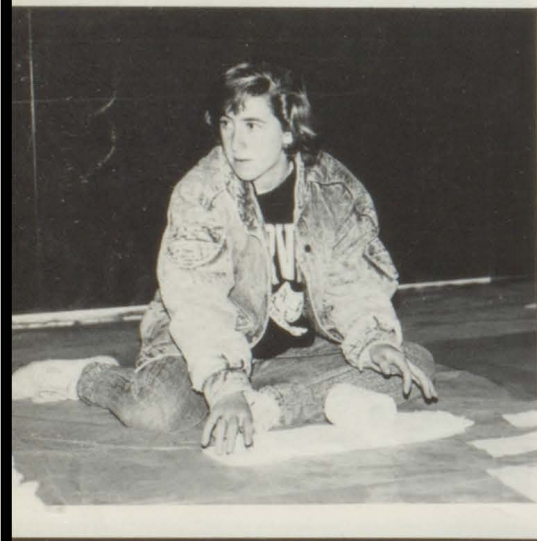

Here's J. Ozee walking to class, but what exactly is C. VanLoon up to?

M. McCabe and A. McReynolds show extreme happiness in this picture.

Mark C., Mr. Peterson, and Andrew H. show school spirit by being hippies. We are not certain which ones are the students and which one is the principal!

Ben Osman taking part of the sophomore float home with him?

Brandi Shutter is working feverishly to get the junior float done on time.

Riding in the truck is part of the football team.

Brooke G. and Justin O. diligently decorating the Freshman float.

Kasey M. looks toward the camera in a moment of suspense.

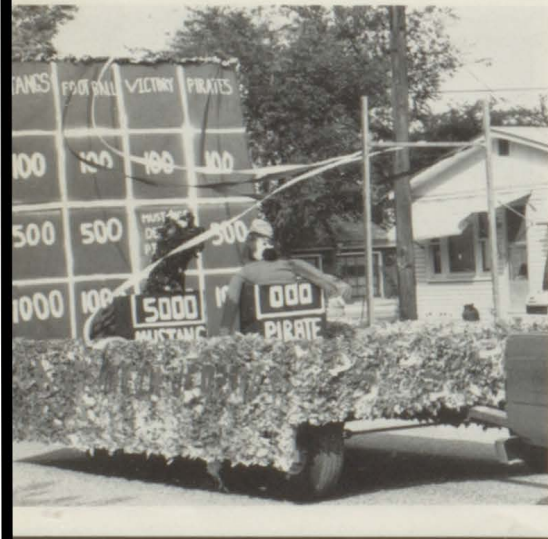

Laura W., Tracy P., and Mindy T., cheerfully root for the best team, the Mustangs.

Carrie H, Leah M, Erin R, Tara M, Kasey M, Kari S, Cheryl R, Tammy D, Erica T, and Jodi M all had a twin on twin day.

Shannon D., Bridgette B., Kristi B., Joda M., Kristy H., Jill F., Dawn F., Elizabeth B., Chrissy L., and Harv P., were more than twins. They were dec-tuplets!

Shown below is the Senior Homecoming float. With Wheel of Fortune as their theme, they took first place in the float competition.

Cheryl Rauch and Jason Swint get into the spirit of hippie day during Homecoming week.

Above is the Junior float. They won third place with the theme of Jeopardy.

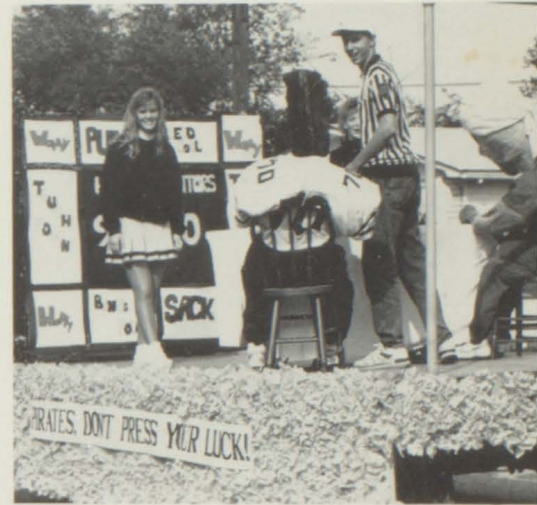

The Freshman float, right, took fourth place. Their theme was Scrabble.

Here's the Royal Couple, King Nathan Crowder and Queen Elizabeth Brewer.

The Sophomore float came in second.

Chase Cribbet and Brandi Barter, crown bearers.

Here's the full Homecoming court. All eighteen of them! S. VanLoon, E. Roach, N. Crowder, E. Brewer, J. VanderBurgh, K. Hart, B. Barter, J. Beals, Z. Sowa, C. Cribbet, H. Phillips, J. Marshall, B. Bertini, B. Bryan, C. Weddle, S. Brewer, J. Ozee, T. Martin.

Below: Prom 1990, "Stairway to Heaven," was held on May 12 by the Junior Class at the Clarion Inn at Eagle Creek. It is the party of the year in which the juniors say goodbye and good luck to the seniors.

Below: Mark seems to see something interesting across the room. (?)

The 89-90 Mustangs elected to have a fun season reflected by a 2-7 record. The Mustangs, under new leadership, struggled throughout the season due to injuries that caused a lack of depth and experience at key positions. The one bright point of the season was the valuable experience that the underclassmen received. Hopefully the Mustangs learned a lesson and will come back fired up for next season.

The mustangs had a sub par season but have acquired invaluable experience. Led by sole senior Craig Harshman, the team fought its way through a tough schedule but has built potential for a strong future team. The Mustangs faired poorly in tournament play with a 2-4 record. At the banquet, Sean Harshman received, Most Improved; Danny Shelton, Best Defensive Player; Craig Harshman, Sportsmanship; and Brandon Yoder, MVP.

The JV Girls had a rough season. They compiled an 8-10 record that doesn't tell the whole story. Due to younger players and lack of experience, the team ran into trouble. The girls played hard and didn't bow to tough opposition. The experience they gained will help to develop a stronger JV team and future varsity team.

Best Effort Put Forth

The eighth grade basketball team only had five members which didn't leave any room for subs. As a result, the 7th graders saw some extra playing time. Despite the lack of depth, all of the boys put forth a good effort. The seventh grade team had a better season and with their gained experience should shine next year.

8th grade team members: L. Yarnell and K. Sheeley (stats), K. Schwarz, J. Brewer, S. Chilton, L. Bland, C. Russell, L. Patrick (stats), and Coach Jim Parsons.

Lady Yearlings

Proud Of Wins

The Lady Yearlings had a very successful season under the direction of Coach JoAnn Foster. Coach Foster devoted her time to us. It was a big change for us since she was a new coach. But we learned to handle it and it was a great learning experience with her as our coach. She is a great teacher and our hard work paid off.

The eighth grade team had a 12-6 record which is extremely good considering the teams we played. We lost our chance for sectionals when we lost against Arcola in double overtime. Even though we lost our chance at sectionals we had a chance to do well in the Turkey Day Tournament. There we placed second and became the first junior high girls team in Bethany to win a trophy. But wins and losses could not tell how we played as a team. Most of all, we had a lot of fun, even if we lost once and awhile. Next year we'll be back better than ever, but we'll be playing as Fillies.

The seventh grade team had a fair season with a 3-11 record. They put in just as much hard work as the eighth graders, but they lacked experience. Toward the end of the season though, they started to loosen up. They were more relaxed on the floor and knew what they were doing. The seventh graders will be good leaders for the eighth grade team next year. As for the sixth graders, they'll have an advantage because of their new found experience.

Boys' Track

Led by new-track coach Brent Phillips, the boys' track team had a fairly successful season. The team was undefeated in smaller meets while they placed well in larger meets. The team took second in the Meridian Conference meet. Being short on numbers hindered the team at larger meets. Ryan Martin placed very high or won at long jump throughout the season, but was unable to qualify for State. The relay teams also did very well. Next season's team should excel, since all members except for three seniors will be returning.

Girls' Track

The girls' track team, under the direction of Coach Jane Henricks, had a very successful season. Throughout the season they did very well, winning almost all of their smaller meets and placing well in their larger meets. The team had small numbers but a lot of heart which helped them to succeed. Alene Lillico excelled in long distance, winning most of her races. Kristy Bunfill also did very well in the discus. The team's strong point though was the relay teams. Throughout the year they set record times for themselves and the school. They qualified for State in the 800m relay. The team loses a lot of senior talent this year, but hopefully youth will provide another winning team next year.

JH Boys' Track

The junior high boys' track team didn't have such a good year. The number of 7th and 8th graders were small compared to the number of 6th graders. Although the team lacked in experienced runners, they did manage to win a few meets. Two 7th graders did go to state: Chris Clark ran the 800m, and Chris Petro threw the shot put. Next year promises to be a better one for junior high boys' track.

Moody, K. Wicker, and N. Fite. Bottom: J. Armer, B. Stewart, A. Patrick, T. McManmie, J. Banning, and A. Haile.

This year was a successful one for the girls' track team. Thanks to a great coach, a bunch of hardworking girls, and everyone's support, the team continuously won meet after meet including Tri-County Regionals and the State Track Meet. Jamie Scott even broke the long jump record by jumping 16'1" during the regular season. The team was full of talent, energy, and determination. Many 7th graders were competing on the 8th-grade level, and most everybody was ready and willing to do an event they didn't normally do on a last minute's notice, to help earn the team winning points. And as Coach always said, "Track is an individual sport, but no single person can bring home those trophies and awards." The word TEAM has never meant so much.

Top left: Jamie's poised and ready as she awaits the start of the race. Top right: Erin, you look a little nervous. Bottom: Lindsay Patrick sails through the air as she jumps.

STATE CHAMPS!

Our very own State Track Team: B. Moody, J. Scott, A. Dickens, L. Patrick, K. Sheeley, J. Bennett, S. Phillips, A. Smith, and Coach JoAnn Foster and Mr. Peterson.

Lindsay Patrick, Brandi Moody, Amanda Dickens, and Jamie Scott were the four girls that won the State track meet for the BJHS girls track team. They worked hard all season, individually as well as a relay team, and their work paid off when despite rain and bad weather, they beat out 52 other schools in the State track meet.

The four of them worked together as a team to score points in their relay. Jamie also competed in the high jump, long jump, and 400 meter run. Amanda Dickens was in the long jump, 200m., and 110 hurdles in which she broke a school record. Congratulations Amanda, Lindsay, Jamie, and Brandi. Your hard work paid off!

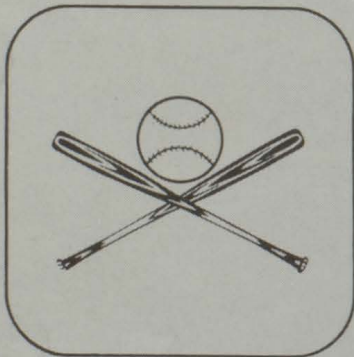

The girls hold their trophy up, celebrating their crowning as State Champions. Congratulations girls, you deserve it!

Rained Out!

The girls' softball team had a very disappointing season. Due to rain outs the girls only played a fourth of their games. The team lost their games when they did play, but the girls still had fun playing. The competition they faced was often overwhelming, and the team knew they were outmatched the entire season. Hopefully, the team will be a winner next year.

After an intense practice, the team collapses from exhaustion including Coach Chamberlain.

The baseball team came to play ball this year posting a 9-8 record. Under the direction of new coach, Dave Penk, the Mustangs posted their best season in quite awhile. The team's strength came from the experience of junior players, since there were no true senior veterans. The team captains were Mark Chilton and Brian Plummer. In sectional play the team went 1-1. The batting title went to Danny Luck. Three players made 2nd team All-Conference: Danny Luck, Mark Chilton, and Brian Plummer. Next year's team should be very successful due to the number of returning lettermen. Good job, guys!

Bowlers Spirit Sparse

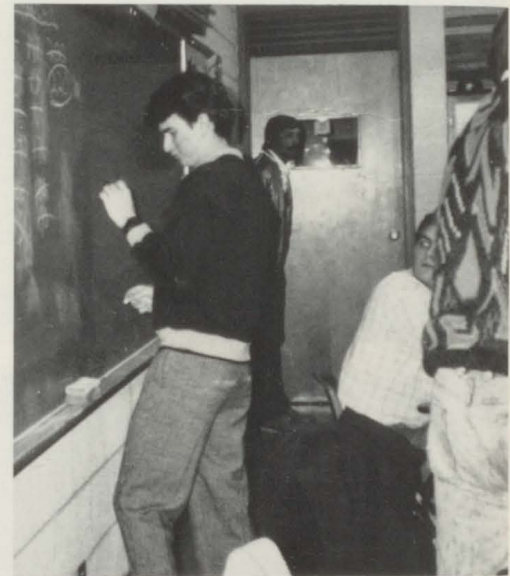

The 1990 Scholastic Bowl team was in what might be called a regrouping year. The Varsity squad occasionally showed some spirit. Varsity members were (standing) Coach Syfert, E. Gosnell, J. VanderBurgh, C. Cribbet, C. Baxter (sitting) M. Bryant, H. Emel, B. Brown, B. Shutter. Special meets during the year were the Shelbyville Tournament, Meridian Conference Tournament, and the State Sectional at Palestine.

Some highlights of the senior year were (clockwise starting at right) The Wedding in Family Living between Bridgette Bryan and Brian Bertini. Of course it was only pretend, but everyone learned how hectic and expensive a wedding can be. Craig Harshman and his parents were honored on Senior Night ending Craig's four years as a basketball player. NHS had its annual installation ceremony with members John VanderBurgh, Brian Bertini, and Rob Helm conducting. Concessions were a big fundraiser for the seniors during the football season. Joe Inman, Denise Martin, and Brian Crane pulled duty this night. Another highlight is having a chance to relax as Tim Peterson, Nathan Crowder, Jason Nelson, and Rob Helm can show you how fun it is. (?) Finally, the seniors girls were honored on Senior Night.

Into The High School: Year Three

The year for the junior class started off fast and didn't ever slow down. The title "Upper Classmen" came with more work and responsibility than we expected. Magazine sales turned out to be costly to some of us while Junior concessions were costly to ALL of us. We wrote our first term paper for Mrs. Henricks (what fun), and took essay tests for American History. Prom was an experience full of committee meetings, class voting, decorating the Clarion Inn, and dancing all night. Our junior year went fast, but it was full of great times and good friends.

Class officers are Pres. Mike Bryant, Sec. Corey Weddle, Treas. Eric Gosnell, and V. Pres. Brandi Shutter.

When it comes to Homecoming, this crew knows floats! Right, Bo?

Sophomores

Clockwise from the top:
"Peace to the world," says Kari Smith, who participated on Hippie Day during Homecoming week.

Which one is Moe, Larry, or Curly? Oh, it's just Eric Ashley, Mark Bland, and Greg Dickens practicing their balancing act.

Erin Roach takes time to preview one of the new yearbooks before she helps distribute them to the rest of the students.

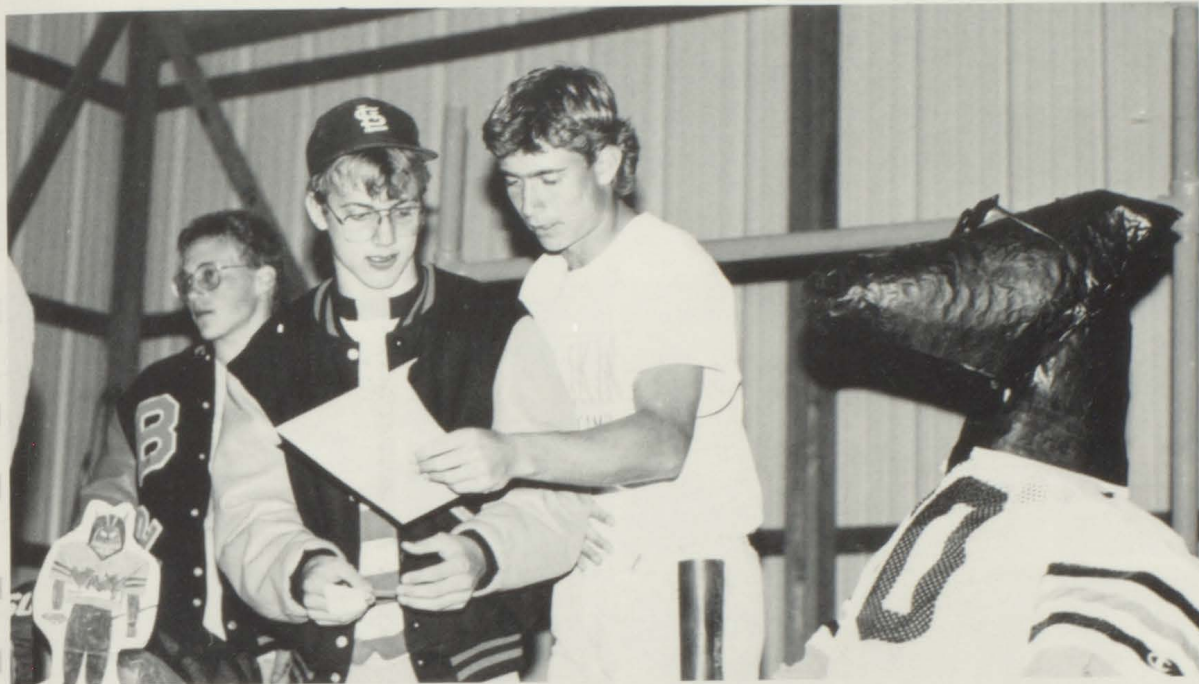

Greg, Rick Shutter, and Doug Fultz helped build the sophomore float for homecoming. We have yet to identify their friend.

Pep assemblies bring out all kinds of characters. Erica Titus and Tammy Dunlevy seem to want to play football.

Still trying to balance are Mark and Greg.

When a camera's around, Susan Inman, Lori McLaughlin, and Lisa Fleschner can be found. Hi back, Lisa.

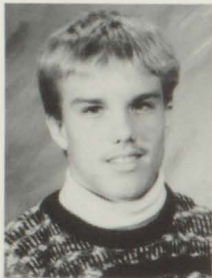

Into The High School: Year Two.

The Class of '92 took a breather this year. Their freshmen year was finally over as was all the horrors that went with it. (Who can forget the dreaded solo of every upperclassman's favorite song, "I LOVE YOU SENIORS.") Soon, the junior year will be here and everyone will be working on the Jr./Sr. Prom. After that will be the senior year and graduation around the corner. Yes, the sophomore year is the time to sit back and watch everything and everyone go by without worry. Unfortunately, nobody realizes how easy the sophomore year is until it's over.

In the cafeteria, Heidi Kleiss and Courtney Harshman go filthching through the yearbooks looking for the best revealing candids!

While in gym, Alish and Leah discuss their exciting weekend.

Brooke Gregory seems to be looking for inspiration to write the best yearbook advice.

Justin, Scot, Ben, and Jeff discussing their next initiation mission?

Yes, that's right boys, no gum allowed this year.

And here it is ... that dreaded Elephant Walk. At least the seniors enjoyed Initiation Day.

Into The High School: Year One

The freshman year marks the passage into behaving like adults, or at least that's what was expected until homecoming week when the freshmen behaved like animals. The girls had to do the much dreaded "Elephant Walk," while the boys played the sly foxes and did their best to avoid the perilous P.E. locker room. The days mellowed out once initiation was over, and high school life went into full swing. Glad that's over!

Junior High

Clockwise from the top: Painting in art class can take many forms. Is Scott actually painting Phillip?

These 7th and 8th graders are so excited about school, they just can't wait to go back to class after lunch.

Looks like the Tintype's Mark Jones has an Andi shadow on picture day.

But what, yet another budding artist, Jeff?

Bretta is the center of attention as she gives her impression of Cujo.

For the junior high it is practically a tradition to hang out in the gym, but in this section of the gym NO BOYS ALLOWED. (With the exception of Jason.)

Into The Eighth Grade

This is the last year of junior high. This is the end of spelling bees, movie of the month, reading workbooks, and being a Yearling. This is the eighth grade. We are important now, but we know it all starts over next year when we enter high school. For now, we will enjoy our status in school. Thanks to Mrs. Blackford and Mrs. Piatt for being our class sponsors.

Into The Seventh Grade

We are Yearlings. We have lockers; we carry lots of books; and we play night basketball games. We are in the seventh grade and the biggest change for us is we share the halls with very BIG high school people. That will all change as the years pass, but for now, we are the youngest and we feel it! Thanks to Mrs. Lane and Mrs. Foster for being our class sponsors.

Another Year In The Bag

As We Move Into The Nineties, Remember . . .

The Road Not Taken

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that, the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I —
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

As We Move Into The Nineties, Remember

The Road Not Taken

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And so one I chose, how I should
That has made all the difference
To that I trust in the long run

That kept the other as just as fair,
But having chosen one, the other claim,
Because all was grassy and wanted wear,
Though as for that, the poem is there,
That when they stand really about the same

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had broken them, though
Oh, I kept the first for another day,
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back
